

BOOK-9

The Alien Agenda

“Now the Spirit expressly says that in later times some will depart from the faith by devoting themselves to deceitful spirits and teachings of demons, through the insincerity of liars whose consciences are seared...”

- 1 Timothy 4:1 & 2

This verse is very relevant to Book-9 and I will elaborate momentarily. In Book-9 I will discuss the various types of alien and demons that exist in this world and in the second and fourth dimension. We should pay close attention the Illuminati Card titled, “Church of Middle America.” This card will be played very soon. This particular card backs The Alien Agenda in two ways. It will cause mass hysteria that will allow this “Martial Law” card to be played as well. The second way an alien attack will correlate with the Alien Agenda, is that it will make people question their faith. Science fiction has programmed humans for decades that if aliens exist, there can be no IEUE. Later, you will see that even aliens recognize one CREATOR (but are not one with Him).

When I was twelve-years-old in junior high school, I became a complete menace in my science class. I debated theories taught by my science teacher every week until I was kicked out of his class and placed in a different science class. I was in constant trouble with my parents because he loved to report my defiance as constant class disruption. My teacher told my mother that I was a class clown. She told my father, and they were both furious. Most of my punishments in junior high were due to this one particular science class.

This class was always full of students because word got around school about the daily arguments my science teacher and I got into, and kids really found it amusing. When my science teacher could not answer one of my questions, he would always say:

“You are 12 years old, boy! I’ve got underwear older than you, so how can you question me, an expert in the field of science for over 35 years!?” I never saw myself as a little boy. I gave him the same answer every time: “Because unlike you, and these stupid books, I think outside the box.”

At this point I was normally sent to the office for detention. I was so angry with this man, and later in life realized that even in college, I could not escape the ignorance of several professors. I say “Ignorance” because they normally taught what they had also learned while they were in college. It seems at a university level, students are inundated with philosophy from renowned men of the past, but students are not taught to become consumed in their own thoughts, and create new philosophies for themselves. I had many theories as a young boy, and I was able to prove many of them to be true, while others were false. But in my search for even my false theories, I came across several hypothesis that I would use at a later date with my expanded theories. The key was to constantly self educate, because self education is far more rewarding than the education that comes from any school, because it's unlimited with data, and holds no boundaries or restrictions like the ones we find in any school system.

The incident that got me kicked out of my junior high class indefinitely was a heated argument over the sun. My teacher was lecturing our class on how the sun burns at thousands of degrees Fahrenheit. I quietly said, "Bullshit, the sun is cold." The entire class erupted in laughter. My teacher was so angry he couldn't help but smile. One of my friends called me crazy as the class started to settle down. I asked my friend if the sun was so hot, why is it so cold in space? Why is their frost on airplane windows when flying on the hottest day of the year? My friend said, "I don't know, why?"

I responded, "Because the further we rise away from Earth the colder it gets." Another kid asked, "Then why is it hot outside?" I responded, "I don't know why, that's why we have a teacher! To teach us the truth about things instead of these day-to-day lies written in these books!" Without an argument, my teacher kicked me out of class for good, and I was forced to take a different science class by my mother.

Today, I am no longer that defiant child. Instead, I am now a more informed adult who interpreted a hypothesis, which was fueled by my childhood defiance. The sun is a colder than my teacher taught us back in junior high school, and now I can better articulate my childhood theory.

Note: C= Celsius and K= Kelvin and F= Fahrenheit

The sun is really cold, contrary to what official scientist believe. As actual proof, the outer space exposed to sun rays without any blockage from atmosphere is extremely cold to approximately 2.725°K (-270.425°C or -454.765°F). Water freezes at approximately -41.1°C or -42°F (232.15°K). So why is it not extremely hot in space as the sun shines with such brilliance? Here on Earth in summer for instance, when there are no clouds it's hot outdoors, but why? The answer is, heat is caused by a thermal reaction between sun rays and the electromagnetic planetary aura, the Van Allen lines or the morphogenetic fields of matter as taught in ancient arcane wisdom and in the book Telos. You won't find this in a science book, but it's a frequency commanded to heat as it reaches closer to mass. So once the sun rays reach Earth, they create heat on matter. Behind a tree, we feel the temperature is cooler because the sun rays (frequency) does not directly interact with the morphogenetic fields of the particle matter of our bodies, but through radiation (refraction). In outer space, the space station and astronauts exposed to the sun rays experience a temperature of approximately 115°C (240°F) since there are no clouds that deviate or reflect the sun rays. During the dark side, when Earth is between the astronauts and the sun, the temperature is very cold -180°C (-290°F). The absence of other matter makes less of refraction possible.

Without matter (Earth for example), we would feel no heat but instead freeze to death. Scientist measures the temperature of the sun by its color and not by temperature on the actual sun surface. The sun is 93 million (92,960,000) miles (149,600,000 km) from Earth, so measuring the actual temperature was out of the question in early science books.

I met a German Scientist during a lunch break at the Round Table Conference at Oxford University in London. I told him the story about my experience as a kid with regards to the sun. We chatted a bit, and before lunch was over, the Scientist said to me, "Stop concentrating on how cold the sun is, and concentrate on vehicles that are entering and exiting the sun." He quickly rushed off before I had time to even think about what he had said. A few years later while researching Unidentified Flying Objects (UFOs) in Peru, I was told about UFOs that come from the sun.

In these photos, you can see UFOs hovering just outside the surface of the sun. Some of these space vehicles are as large as a city, while some are larger than some states and even whole countries. Never the less, they do exist.

There are so many sightings around the world, one can't help to think, where do they come from? Why are they here? The answer will astound you as you continue to read.

The Roswell crash of 1947, is the most famous UFO crash of the Century. Below (bottom right), is an actual photograph of the bodies that were collected at the Roswell sight. Immediately upon the militaries return to the southern Nevada "Area 51" base, there was an official press release stating that debris from some kind of flying disc had been recovered. It had been written by Lt. Walter Haut, and a newspaper story followed on July 8th with the headline "RAAF Captures Flying Saucer on Ranch in Roswell Region".

However, that press release was almost immediately pulled and replaced by another stating that the crash was only that of a weather balloon, and had nothing to do with an alien UFO. Here's a U.S. Air Force Aircraft Identification Chart (comical in nature), of what flying devices are to be classified as "Weather Balloons." Walter Haut never made a big deal of it, and always was nonchalant about the incident when interviewed over the years. He died in December of 2005; leaving the truth behind in an affidavit that was only to be opened after he had passed away.

U.S. AIR FORCE AIRCRAFT IDENTIFICATION CHART

His affidavit was a shock to some. There were many people who never stopped believing the government was running a conspiracy, and it looked as if they were finally able to say, "I told you so." Lt. Walter Haut claims that the crash was indeed a UFO made from material that was extremely thin and lightweight, yet incredibly strong. He went even further to say that he had seen a couple of aliens on the floor of a hangar where the UFO was stored; they were about four feet and had large heads compared to their little bodies.

He also divulges information about a secret meeting between top officials where the UFO was discussed, and even pieces of the debris were present to be viewed and examined. Nine months following the Roswell crash, military and government officials scoured the Texas land to find every shred of debris and evidence of the crash. It was rumored that they even hunted down locals who had recovered a piece for a souvenir and seized the materials.

The Alien bodies that were recovered from the Roswell crash site were pronounced deceased on the scene and taken back to Area 51 for autopsies. One of the men involved ended up getting away with a black and white video and some pictures of the autopsy. He has still remained anonymous to this day. Seen in this photo to the right is an alien that was used for the autopsy, but it's not a consistent match to the bodies of the deceased aliens seen on the previous page. This video was of a "Humanoid alien," just one of several species known to man, and not an autopsy of one of the aliens from the actual Roswell crash.

There are four types of Gray aliens known to man that include:

Type #1 - 3 feet tall, dark grey, extremely slight with larger than average heads.

Type #2 - 6 feet tall, muscular frame, light brown color, and more visual personality than the other species.

Type #3 - 6 feet tall, slight frame, long features. Pure white skin with lots of boil/wart type marks.

Type #4 - 7+ foot tall, unbelievably slight frame. Difficult to comprehend their look. Dark grey (almost black).

There is a reptilian race that our military call "Reptiloids," but this species is from Earth, and has lived here even before the great floods, which you will learn about later in this Book.

UFOs Hidden In Plain Sight

The world looked upward towards the star from 1947 until now. There have been hundreds of films made about aliens coming from space to Earth. Some of these films show the aliens as hostile while others (like E.T.) show aliens in a more humble state, warm and loving. Whatever the attitude of the alien, it was the Defense Department who authorized the development of these films. Because of the Global Military Defense Agenda today, the only types of movies shown are aliens who are very hostile. This is a strategy to keep people in fear for what's planned to soon come. The truth is, none of them are hostile. Instead, they are afraid of humans and see us as hostile, which we are.

So where do these aliens and UFOs come from? The truth is hidden in plain sight. The Holy Bible has been the ultimate guide to UFOs and their occupants. The first UFO sighting is when a spacecraft picks up Enoch in Genesis 5:24. The Bible's brief detail on the matter is incorrect. IEUE didn't take Enoch, He sent angels on two separate occasions to pick Enoch up. His first abduction included a "Science History" lesson. Angels taught Enoch astrology, the genres of various biological corridors where humans are held after death, and the gates to heaven and hell. Enoch was dropped off, back at home and two years for him to record all that he had learned which he passed down to his son, and later, the same UFO came and picked him up in an empty field in front of hundreds of witnesses.

Note: Though the bible states in Genesis 5:24: "And Enoch walked with God: then he was no more; for God took him." This is not true according to Enoch, himself. It was IEUE's angels who came for him both times according to "The Book of Enoch."

We do see IEUE come forth in his mighty chariot of fire in Exodus. From the pillar of cloud during the day, and pillar of fire at night found in Exodus 13:21, this vehicle was a UFO in which Moses followed through the wilderness. It was the same UFO that landed on Mt. Sinai before Moses met with, IEUE.

Like Enoch, the story of Noah is also a story that is incomplete in the Bible. According to the Revelations of the Metatron, there were two massive arks built. One was by Noah and the other was by a ship builder by the name of Xisuturous. According to The Revelations of the Metatron, During The Great Deluge, the fallen half archangel half amphibian, Belzebub, warned many of the coming floods. It was Baal (Satan) who warned Belzebub. God's Angels and Baal's fallen angels took heed, but man didn't because they didn't know Belzebub. Only the peak of mount Atlas where Angels of God resided was to be saved from the flood. There were a total of three islands where Angels resided. Two of these islands sit under the ocean today and only Atla was spared, while corruption was destroyed. The angels who listened to Belzebub's warning, enlarged their crafts, both air and sea. Hundreds of UFOs could be seen rising high above the waters and Unidentified Submerged Objects (USOs) could be seen dwelling under the water. Once the water receded, the angels took over the earth for 6,000 years because IEUE left the Earth. How the 6,000 years came to an end is illustrated in Book-1 under "A New Ruler of Earth and The Order of the Last Surviving Raphiem." In short, we see the angels both good and bad, coming together and devising an escape plan to leave Earth. This plan took 100 years, and involved the production of an armada of space vehicles (UFOs). Nephilim, Raphiem and men, all took part in the constructions of these UFOs.

Nephilim, Raphiem stood between 15 (4.6 Meters) and 36 feet (11 meters) in height. To give you a visual idea of how massive these giants were, take a look at these two photos of a finger found mummified in Egypt. The top photo is pictured with a 20 pound Egyptian note laying next to it, just to give you a good idea of how large its hand would have been. This finger is 15 inches (38 cm) meaning that it belonged to a Nephilim who was over 18-20 feet (5.5 - 6.096 meters) tall. Here are some other unearthed proof of Nephilim and Raphiem giant existence, found around the world.

NOTE: Raphiem are not defined in the bible but Goliath was a Raphiem before David killed him. There are several stories of Rahiems in the Bible.

Here is a chart that illustrates the height of men from 6-36 feet (1.8-11 meters). These giants also took part in the construction of a fleet of spacecrafts after the floods.

In the Vedic literature of India, there are many descriptions of flying machines that are generally called, "Vimanas." They fall into two categories:

- (1) Manmade craft that resemble airplanes and fly with the aid of birdlike wings, like the four gold Vimanas shown in this photo.
- (2) Bell shaped structures that fly in a mysterious manner, and are generally not human made. The machines in category (1) are described mainly in medieval, secular Sanskrit works dealing with architecture, automata, military siege engines, and other mechanical contrivances. Those in category (2) are described in ancient works such as the Rigveda, the Mahabharata, the Ramayana, and the Puranas, and they have many features reminiscent of UFOs. Directly below are some examples of how statues and temples mirror the Vimana unique structures. It would have appeared like a hovering building in the sky.

We saw similar bell shaped UFOs with the Nazi Bell and the Kecksburg Acorn as seen here.

The Bell

The Nazi Germans were working on a super secret project during WWII, which has been dubbed "Wunderwaffe," or Wonder Weapon. It has other names such as the Nazi-Bell, The Bell, and Die Glocke to name a few. This device or contraption the Nazi's were building tested anti-gravity theories.

Rumors of the Bell were that it was an aircraft, super secret, and would win the war. But it turns out; the Nazi Bell was not an aircraft, but more of a time machine or wormhole generator.

It was said to be about 9-10 feet high, and 12 to 15 feet in diameter. It used electromagnetic propulsion. It had two counter rotating cylinders that were filled with Xerium 525, which would glow a violet color when activated. Xerium 525 is Red Mercury or mercury antominate oxide, which is known to have strong neutron emitting properties when subjected to sudden explosive stress. It's known to be a non-fissile method of triggering the enormous fusion reactions of hydrogen bombs, as well as being able, in its own right, of fission explosions in the small kiloton range. The Bell also emitted high amounts of radiation when activated. Workers supposedly suffered severe vertigo; sleep problems, and five even died from the radiation. An above ground device was also used with the Bell, called the "Flytrap" or "Henge," as seen to the right. The Bell was chained up to the Flytrap and used as a stabilizer until the bell was ready to warp into another dimension.

One would need to use the right frequency and the right electromagnetic fields, to generate a very strange phenomenon. Things can appear and disappear in a blink of an eye. Several ex-Nazis admitted years later that they were taught by alien on how to recreate this sort of technology.

On December 9th, 1965, a UFO was sighted by thousands of eyewitnesses in six U.S. states and parts of Ontario, Canada as it streaked towards, and eventually crashed near Kecksburg, Pennsylvania. Witnesses in Kecksburg who saw the object, both in flight and after the crash, described it as a bell-shaped object, about the size of an automobile, with a bell-shaped object, about the size of an automobile, with a string of strange hieroglyphics around the bottom edge. A local newspaper, the Tribune-Review reported the next morning, "Unidentified Flying Object Falls near Kecksburg — Army Ropes off Area."

NOTE: STRANGE INSCRIPTIONS WERE FOUND ON BOTH THE NAZI BELL AND KECKSBURG ACORN

John Murphy, the news director for local radio station WHJB was on the scene before the military arrived, and snapped photographs of the object, but claims his photos were confiscated by the military. He later produced a radio documentary called, "Object in the Woods." Before Murphy could air this documentary, two mysterious men who warned him not to air the documentary visited him. A WHJB employee, Linda Foschia, claims the meeting lasted 30 minutes, after which the men confiscated Murphy's audio-tapes, leaving Murphy agitated, and despondent. After that incident, Murphy refused to discuss the incident again. He was murdered in February 1969. He was run down in a mysterious, and to this day unsolved hit-and-run accident while crossing a street. It was obvious that the military ordered this hit on Murphy. His photographs would have proved that the Nazi bell and the Kecksburg Acorn are one and the same.

The Kecksburg incident might have been relegated to the footnotes of obscure UFO history, until a Polish author named Igor Witkowski published a book called Prawda O Wunderwaffe (The Truth About The Wonder Weapon). In his book, Witkowski alleged that Nazi scientists working for the SS in a secret facility near the Wenceslaus mine, close to the Czech border, had developed a secret weapon called Die Glocke, or "The Bell." According to transcripts from an interrogation of former Nazi SS Officer Jakob Sporrenberg, the device not only generated an anti-gravity field, but also with the help of certain optical devices, allowed glimpses into the past.

Both devices sported strange symbols around the lower edge of the device, a result of cultic influences within the Nazi SS. It also reportedly emitted a deadly radiation that killed several of the scientists working on the project, which in the end didn't matter much, since the Nazis are said to have later executed at least 60 of the scientists working on the project to protect its secrets.

Witkowski, and later, others, speculated that the Nazi secret weapon was smuggled out of Germany before the end of the war, ending up in South America, or possibly even in the U.S. as part of Project Paperclip. Project Paperclip was the top-secret effort to bring hundreds of top Nazi scientists and their advanced technologies to the U.S. for study, headed by Wernher von Braun (founder of NASA). Many parts of the program are still classified to this day. Some researchers believe that Die Glocke, or the Nazi flying bell, is what crash-landed in Kecksburg, PA on December 9th, 1965 and was covertly carted away to Wright Patterson Air Force Base by the Army. It appears that this device had been circling the Earth for 20 years in a series of wormholes before landing back on Earth. This might have only been seconds for the reptilian pilot that was found deceased inside.

WWII UFOs

During WWII, the Germans were the most advanced when it came to technology. Dr. Hermann Oberth, who pioneered rocket design for the German Reich during World War II and later advanced rocket technology for the American manned space launches, stated, "We cannot take the credit for our record advancement in certain scientific fields alone; we have been helped." When asked by whom, he replied: "The people of other worlds."

The existence of WWII German Field Propulsion Flying Saucers is a topic, which is denied by most authorities on aviation history, and yet you can see it above with your own eyes. The problem is that in the years immediately following the Second World War, the earth's skies suddenly began to be populated by aircrafts, which did some remarkable things. They flew at unheard of speeds, made very sharp turns, seemingly non-aerodynamic turns, even at this extreme speed. They lacked the glowing tail of jets or rockets but they glowed or gave off light at night from their periphery or from the whole craft. They were silent or almost silent. Sometimes they gave off sounds that an electric generator or motor might make. Sometimes vehicles with electrically based ignition systems ceased to operate in the presence of these saucers, and by all accounts these saucer were solid and material in nature. No government claimed these flying craft, yet they were seen all over the world.

Haunebu Mk III

Diameter: 71 m
 Drive: Thule Tachymotor (Thule Triebwerk) 7c, plus SM-Elevators
 Control: Mag Field Impulser 4a
 Speed: 7,000 km/h (during space flight up to 40,000 km/h)
 Range: Flight time 7 to 8 weeks
 Armament: 4 x 110 mm KSK in 4 rotating turrets (3 lower, 1 upper); 10 x 80 mm KSK in rotating turrets plus 6 x 30, 100, 30mm; 8 x 50 mm KSK
 Armor: Triple Victalen
 Crew: 32 (with room for up to 70 people)
 Max hover capability: 25 minutes
 All weather, day and night, capability
 Space flight capability: 100%
 First flight: 1945
 Available for service: 1945

The press and popular culture attributed these unusual craft to an extraterrestrial source, yet no real proof for this assertion had ever come to light until the Roswell crash. The Germans were the first to use "Reverse engineering" techniques regarding "Flying saucers." This helped them to inherit the knowledge to build successful UFOs. After a crashed spacecraft was discovered in the Black Forest (Schwarzwald), near Freiburg in 1936, the Occult Corps, built the Institute for Science and Mysticism (Das Institut für Wissenschaft und Mystizismus), also known as "Walhalla" which was designated an X-Lab, to examine the wreck.

The Institute's "X-Labs" acquired an abundance of science and technology, far beyond mankind's comprehension. Soon after, various X-Labs were constructed in several locations throughout Germany, including Castle Erlangen, Castle Heidenheim, Castle Höllenhammer, Castle Naudabaum, Castle Nuremberg, and Castle Wolfenstein.

The Vril Society

The crashed spacecraft was significant because the Vril Society, which had been incorporated into the Ahnenerbe, believed that Aryans were a creation of the Black Sun (as seen on the floors of today's, Denver Airport) which is a form of Swastika, and had originated close to the Pleiades, from a planet orbiting the star, Aldabaran, which translates literally as "The follower," presumably because this bright star appears to follow the Pleiades, or "Seven Sisters" star cluster in the night sky.

The Vril Society, also known as Alldeutsche Gesellschaft für Metaphysik or Vril Gesellschaft, were led by Maria Orsitsch Orsic (sometimes spelt as Orsic) a noted Austrian medium. She was the Marilyn Monroe of German occult practices. Orsitsch, born in Vienna, Austria, endorsed the German national movement to annex Austria with the German Reich. Orsitsch's father was a Croatian and her mother was a German from Vienna. Alldeutsche Gesellschaft für Metaphysik (The All German Society for Metaphysics) was founded in the early 20th Century as a female circle of mediums who were involved in extraterrestrial telepathic contact. The society was later renamed the "Society of Vrilerinnen Women." In 1917 Orsitsch is said to have made contact with extraterrestrials from Aldebaran with her female Vril circle.

Maria Orsitsch

In December 1919 a small group of people from the Thule Gesellschaft, the Vril Society and the DHvSS (Die Herren vom Schwarzen Stein) met in a specially rented forester's lodge near Berchtesgaden, close to the home of Dietrich Eckart. They were accompanied by the medium Maria Orsitsch and another medium only known as Sigrun. Maria had received transmission in a secret Templar script, which was a language unknown to her with the technical data for the construction of a flying machine. According to Vril documents, these telepathic messages also came from the solar system Aldebaran, which is sixty-four light-years away in the constellation, Taurus. The Vril Society not only taught concentration exercises designed to awaken the forces of Vril, their main goal was to achieve Raumflug (Space-flight), and the creation of a "Jenseitsflugmaschine" to reach Aldebaran.

To achieve this, the Vril Society, the Thule Gesellschaft and the DHvSS Die Herren des schwarzen Steins were incorporated into the SS Ahnenerbe as part of an ambitious program to develop an inter-dimensional flight machine based on psychic revelations from the Aldebaran aliens.

Jenseitsflugmaschine

Orsitsch's 1919 move to Munich, Germany put her in touch with fringe society, the Thule Gesellschaft, and exposed her to Thule's edgy beliefs.

The name, "Vril," derived from the Sumerian "Vri-il," which means "Like the gods," or "God-like." It has been used by several esoteric societies throughout history, including the Germanic magical order, Rosicrucian, the Illuminous Lodge and the Vril Society, as the foundation of their world-view. The occult teaches that every atom in the universe is made of Vril, and that 99.99% of each atom is Vril, which is harnessed and its nature shaped by the number of electrons rotating around its nucleus. Since everything and everyone is made of atoms, everything and everyone is made of Vril.

Therefore the consensus in occult belief, is that we have it within us to tap into this universal force and control and shape it into whatever we desire. We can do this because quantum physics has determined that we have the power to change the nature of the subatomic particles within an atom. This means we have the ability to harness and shape this infinite energy, and transform not only the world around us, but ourselves. This is known as the secret power of Vril. The knowledge of controlling Vril is what the occult refer to as, "Vrilology," the science of Vril.

After studying the matter of Vril (in Bavaria, Germany) for several weeks, I can tell you that those involved are not "One," with IEUE, and converge to the "Left," opposed to the "Right." With the Alchemy energy described above, I can confirm it is true, and I have seen this power with my own eyes, but the energy in the room was pure evil. This energy cannot be harnessed from the Heavens because IEUE would never allow it. HE knows that man will take this type of energy and weaponize it, which has already been done. No human or thing, should hold, or search for the power of IEUE. This power is only for IEUE to control, as HE sees fit.

The Vril Society believed in this energy source unknown to science, and they called it "Vril Energy." Vril energy is known as a fundamental, limitless, cosmic life-force energy; a power source that functioned harmoniously with our natural world. Part magnetism, part gravity, and part unknown, the Vril Society believed if Vril energy could be transformed into a viable technological reality, it would serve two purposes. It would of course ensure German technical dominance over other nations of the world and assist in furthering their objective to conquer the World (as I said before, humans would weaponize this energy). In addition, the end of World War II made it clear to the Vril Society that a workable Vril energy source would free Germany from their dependence on international petroleum cartels dominated by the German conquerors (particularly the United States and Britain).

Vril initiated communication to alien races in other, far away solar systems by cutting an apple in half and concentrating on the core of the apple. They claimed that they could communicate with an alien race called "Vril-ya" or "Vrillerinnens." To further differentiate themselves from the general public, the Vril Society broke from the traditional short hair styles worn by women of the day, and instead grew their hair long and twisted it into pony tails (although they rarely wore their hair in pony tails in public). The Vrilians believed their believed their twisted hair acted as antennas to facilitate contact with the extraterrestrials. They also wore unique discs medallions on necklaces they wore around their necks.

The Vril Society also sought to form a New World order. It was to be a utopian world driven and led by alternative science. They believed an alien race could help them achieve their objective. It was thought that the Aryans were originally aliens, which was information that came from Maria Orsitsch, in cooperation with the occultist Baron Rudolf von Sebottendorf, the Gurdjeff disciple Karl Haushofer, the engineer and ace pilot Lothar Waiz, Prelate Gernot of the secret "Societas Templi Marcioni" (The Inheritors of the Knights Templar).

Global Sightings Begin

During this early phase of alternative science, Dr. W. O. Schumann of the Technical University in Munich, both a Thule, and a Vril member, made a speech saying:

"In everything we recognize two principles that determine events: light and darkness, good and evil, creation and destruction, as in electricity we have positive and negative. It is always either/or. These two principles (the creative and the destructive) also determine our technical means... Everything destructive is of satanic origin, everything creative is divine... Every technology based upon explosion or combustion has thus to be called satanic. The coming new age will be an age of a new, positive, divine technology..."

Scientist Viktor Schauberger, worked on a similar project of creating a new order. Johannes Kepler, (whose ideas Schauberger followed), had knowledge of the secret teachings of Pythagoras that had been adopted and kept secret by the Knights Templar. It was the knowledge of implosion (in this case the utilization of the potential of the inner worlds in the outer world).

Hitler knew (as did the Thule and Vril people) that the divine principle was always constructive. A technology that is based on explosion, meaning, destructive runs against the divine principle, therefore they wanted to create a technology based on implosion. Schauberger's theory of oscillation (principle of the overtone sequence, the monochord) takes up the knowledge of implosion.

To put it simply: implosion instead of explosion.

Following the energy paths of the monochord and implosion technology one reaches the realm of antimatter, meaning the cancellation of gravity, which would be used in saucer-shaped flying machines.

In the summer of 1922 the first saucer shaped Jenseitsflugmaschine (flying machine) was built. Its drive was based on implosion. It's disk shape was 26.25 feet (8 meters) across with a second disk, 21.3 feet (6.5 meters) in diameter above, and a third disk made of 23 feet (7 meters) below. These three disks had a hole at the centre of 1.8 meters across in which the drive, which was two meters and forty centimeters high, was mounted. At the bottom the central body was cone-shaped, and there a pendulum reaching the cellar was hung that served for stabilization. In the activated state the top and bottom disk revolved in opposing directions to build up an electromagnetic rotating field.

The performance of this first flying disk isn't known, but experiments were carried out with it for two years before it was dismantled and probably stored back at the Augsburg Works of Messerschmidt. Financing for the first flying disk can be found in several German industrial books. The disk is entered in to these books, with the code name: "JFM" (Jenseitsflugmaschine). The "Vril Drive" (formally called, "Schumann SM-Levigator") emerged from this first flying machine.

In principle the "Other side flying machine" should create an extremely strong field around itself extending somewhat into its surroundings, which would render the space thus enclosed including the machine a microcosm absolutely independent of the earthbound space. At maximum strength this field would be independent of all surrounding universal forces like gravitation, electromagnetism, radiation and matter of any kind and could therefore maneuver within a gravitational or any other field at will, without acceleration forces being effective or perceptible.

In June 1934 Viktor Schauberger was invited by Hitler and the highest representatives of the Thule and Vril societies, and from then on worked with them. After the initial failure, the first so-called German UFO also appeared in June 1934.

Under the leadership of Dr. W.O. Schumann, the first experimental round flying machine, known as the RFZ 1 (Rundflugzeug 1) was developed on the grounds of the aircraft factory Arado in Brandenburg. In its first and only flight it rose vertically to around 60 meters, then wobbled and danced in the air for minutes. The Arado-196 guiding system was utterly useless, and the pilot, Lothar Waiz, just managed to somehow bring it down to the ground, jump out and run away before it began to act like a spinning top, turned over and literally ripped to pieces. This was the end of the RFZ 1, but the beginning of the VRIL flying machines.

Before the end of 1934 the RFZ-2 was ready, with a Vril Drive and a "Magnetic field impulse steering unit." It had a diameter of 16 feet (5 meters) and the following flying characteristics:

- With rising speed, the visible contours became blurred and the craft showed the colors typical for UFOs: depending on the drive setting, red, orange, yellow, green, white, blue or purple.

- It worked with a remarkable success in 1941, during the "Battle of Britain," when it was used as a transatlantic reconnaissance craft. The RFZ-2 could fly at great distance compared to German standard fighters (ME-109s), who had an insufficient range for these flights.

The RFZ-2 was photographed over the southern Atlantic at the end of 1942, on its way to the German cruiser Atlantis in Antarctic waters. It couldn't be used as a fighter because the impulse steering allowed only changes of direction at 90gr, 45gr or 22.50gr, which is exactly the right-angled flying pattern associated with and typical of UFOs today.

NOTE: In GR, gravitation is not viewed as a force, but rather, objects moving freely in air.

After the success of the small RFZ-2 as a distant reconnoiterers craft, the Vril Gesellschaft got its own test area in Brandenburg. By the end of 1942 the lightly armed "Vril-1-Jäger" (Vril-1 fighter) was airborne. It measured 38 feet (11.5 meters) across, carried one person, and had a "Schumann-Levigator" drive and a "Magnetic field impulse steering unit." It reached speeds of 1,800-7,446 MPH (2,900 to 12,000 km/h), could change direction at a right angle at full speed without affecting the pilot, could fly in any weather and had a 100% space capability. Seventeen VRIL-1's were built and some versions had two seats and glass domes.

Also during this time, another project was being worked on, called the V-7. Several disks were built under this code, but with conventional jet engines. Andreas Epp had designed a combination of levitating disk and jet propulsion, called, RFZ-7. The design groups Schriever-Habermohl and Miethe-Belluzo worked on it. It had a diameter of 138 feet (42 meters), but it crashed during its landing at Spitzbergen. A second craft was later photographed outside Prague. According to Andreas Epp, this craft was to be armed with nuclear warheads to attack New York.

In July 1941 Schriever-Habermohl built a round vertical take-off craft with jet propulsion, but it endured a short life span. They went on to develop an "Electro-gravitational flying gyro" with a "Tachyon drive," which proved more successful. Schriever, Habermohl and Belluzo, then built the RFZ-7T that was fully functional. The V-7 flying disks however were mere toys compared to the Vril and Haunebu disks.

Within the SS, there was a group studying alternative energy, the SS-E-IV (Development Group IV of the Black Sun) whose main task was to render Germany independent of foreign oil. The SS-E-IV developed from the existing Vril drives and the tachyon converter of Captain Hans Coler the "Thule Drive" which later was called the "Thule Tachyonator." To the right is an actual photo of the V-7 in flight.

Currently, there are several other flying saucers created by the Germans that mirror the Haunebu Vehicles of 1939, the Haunebu II of 1942, and the "The Foo Fighters" of 1947, but with far more advanced technology. American fighters were reporting UFO sightings during battle (WWII), but lots of these sightings were German engineered vehicles being piloted by German Nazi Officers. Some objects were German balloons.

For example, during a bombing raid on a factory at Schweinfurt, Germany on October 14th, 1943, flight crews of the American 384th Squadron observed a large cluster of discs, which were silver in color, one inch thick and about three inches in diameter. They were floating gently down through the air directly in the path of the American aircraft, and one pilot feared that his B-17 Flying Fortress would be destroyed on contact with the objects. However, the bomber cut through the cluster of discs and continued on its way undamaged. It is quite possible that encounters such as this, were actually pieces of metal foil released by German Aphrodite balloons to confuse radar by returning false images.

Nevertheless, many aircrews reported events that were not so easy to explain, including the harassment of their aircraft by small, glowing, disc-shaped and spherical objects that were highly maneuverable.

On November 23rd, 1944, Lieutenant Edward Schlueter of the 415th U.S. Night Fighter Squadron, was flying a heavy night fighter from his base at Dijon towards Mainz.

Twenty miles from Strasbourg, Lieutenant Fred Ringwald, an Air Force intelligence officer who was on the mission as an observer, glanced out of the cockpit and noticed about ten glowing red balls flying very fast in formation. Schlueter suggested that they might be stars, but this explanation was proved wrong when the objects approached the plane.

Schlueter radioed the American ground radar station, informing them that German night fighters, to which the station replied that nothing was showing on their scope, that was chasing them. Schlueter's radar observer, Lieutenant Donald J. Meiers, checked his own scope, but couldn't detect anything unusual. Schlueter then decided to chase the objects at full throttle. The response from the Foo Fighters was instantaneous: their fiery red glow rapidly dimmed, until they were lost to sight. Less than two minutes later, however, they reappeared, although they seemed to have lost interest in the American aircraft and glided off into the night towards Germany. Upon the objects' departure, the fighter's radar began to malfunction, forcing the crew to abandon their mission.

By 1946, after WWII, several sightings suddenly occurred in Scandinavia of shining objects of unknown and definitely artificial origin caused a great stir among the Allies in both East and West. Again one year later, in 1947, and well into the 50's, a rising number of shining unknown flying objects, doubtlessly maneuvered by intelligent beings, mostly round disk, or bell-shaped, sometimes cigar-shaped, called "UFOs," appeared over North America. Saucers were now being seen, and photographed worldwide.

Regardless of American history books, German Nazi did in fact create and fly saucer-like aircrafts that we deemed UFOs. These antigravity saucers remained in the research and development stage for some time.

In 1942 a little-known invasion of a large flying saucer and several smaller ones was reported over Los Angeles. In what is known as the Battle of Los Angeles, 1,430 rounds were fired at the flying disc. though called "The Battle of Los Angeles," years later it was confessed that these were a series of balloons and not aircrafts. During WWII there were numerous UFO sightings. Some were German engineered but others where from alien origin. Show UFO Chart. So where did the aliens come from? The answer can be found below in The Alien Deception.

The Alien Deception

Like the deception of the sun being extremely hot, we have been lied to about the whereabouts of alien habitat since the Roswell incident. A full campaign of film, television shows, and documentaries were released after the Roswell incident, and still carry weight today. The agenda of these screen visuals are called, "Space Alien Programming." They are meant to keep humans looking into outer space for life on other planets. Though life does exist on many planets, the UFOs and aliens that we have become familiar with are mostly locals who reside here on Earth.

A lateral thinker (the masses) only sees Earth as one world with life on land. The truth is, Earth is made up of three worlds in one. There's "Inner Earth" "Outer Earth" and the "Invisible Earth." Outer Earth is where man and animals reside on land. Inner Earth is where a number of different species of aliens live. The Invisible Earth is all around us located in the Air, Sea and on land, but it's frequency rest on a spectrum of light unknown to man because we can only see third dimensional lighting (mass).

Inner Earth – Alien Habitat

Aliens... they where here before the great floods and will exist here far after the planned apocalypse. I have witnessed UFOs on several occasions throughout my life in the U.S., Peru, Puerto Rico, Mexico, and throughout the Bahamas, so I am familiar (geographically speaking) wear some of these bases exist. The largest alien bases are located in Mexico where there are 45 known alien bases as of 2000. The U.S. is the second largest habitat for alien life form creatures. There are 35 known alien bases in 23 states, but in the U.S. these bases have expanded rapidly since the 90's. Argentina comes in third place with 31 known bases with alien habitats. Other global bases include: Uruguay (1 base), Antarctic (2-bases), Alaska (2-bases not included in the 35 U.S. bases), Canada (3 bases), Iceland (3-bases), Sweden (3-bases), Norway (4-bases), Australia (6-bases), Greenland Soviet Union (10-bases), and there are 12-bases in the Bermuda Triangle region.

There are three known bases on Mars, and five known bases on the dark side of the moon that inhabit over 2000 Gray aliens and hybrids, along with over 100 Homo sapiens. All bases are constructed in deep subterranean environments. For thousands of years an assortment of Gray aliens and reptilians (A.K.A. Reptoids, Reptiloids, and Draconians) that happen to be considered native of Earth, used naturally formed caverns as entryways to build and expand underground bases. I have never seen a living Gray in person, but traveling the globe, I've seen a number of dead Grays and countless hours of video of live ones, from the children of ex-military fathers. It's fascinating the first few times of watching but now if I'm summoned by someone who wants to share his or her fathers story and visual aids, I pass because the stories are all the same no matter what country I fly to, and all of the footage is quite similar. I have seen dead aliens that were incredibly mummified in Peru and in Egypt, along with several skeletons of aliens throughout both Peru and Mexico. I was sent to Peru on a tip of the whereabouts of the infamous cigar shaped UFO, which seems to a key to the existence of all UFOs. When I arrive in Chilca, I was re-instructed to visit Central Mexico. I never witnessed the mysterious cigar shape UFO, but when when I arrived in the Puebla state (located in southeast-central, Mexico), I was amazed with how many witnesses were aware of not only the the cigar shaped UFO, but of several others. Most of the witnesses said that these UFOs used the local Volcano as an entrance and exit into the Earth. It was common knowledge through out the region. I visited for two weeks wit no luck in 2004. Eight years later in 2012, I received news that the cigar UFO showed back up in Mexico, but this time someone video taped it "Falling into the volcano." Again in February 2013, hundreds of photos were taken as the cigar UFO hovered over the same volcano.

The Secret Alien Antarctica Battle of 1947

At the beginning of 1947, American explorer, Richard Byrd arrived on Antarctic shores. This was the fourth time he arrive at the Antarctic, but unlike the previous expeditions, the U.S. Navy financed this one, calling it "Operation Highjump." Operation Highjump was the largest expedition mounted to the Antarctic with over 4,000 souls in attendance. This expedition was secretly sent to wipe out the remaining Nazi presence after WWII ended. The Operation was officially titled The United States Navy Antarctic Developments Program (1946-1947).

This operation was ran under the command of Richard Cruzen, and was launched on August 26th, 1946, but ended abruptly in late February 1947, six months earlier than planned. The massive Antarctic task force included 4,700 men, 13 ships, and multiple aircraft. The official stated claims of the operation were as follow:

To train personnel and test material in the frigid zones to consolidate and extend American sovereignty over the largest practical area of the Antarctic continent to determine the feasibility of establishing and maintaining bases in the Antarctic and to investigate possible base sites to develop techniques for establishing and maintaining air bases on the ice, with particular attention to the later applicability of such techniques to operations in interior Greenland. (Where, it was then believed, physical and climatic conditions resembled those in Antarctica) to amplify existing knowledge of hydrographic, geographic, geological, meteorological and electromagnetic conditions in the area.

However, their choice of ships and fleet size was extremely suspicious. The actual fleet included the following ships:

Eastern Group

Commanded by Captain George J. Dufek

Seaplane Tender Pine Island

Tanker Canisteo

Destroyer Brownson

Western Group

Seaplane Tender Currituck

Tanker Cacapon

Destroyer Henderson

Central Group

Comms-ship Mount Olympus

Icebreaker Burton Island

Icebreaker Northwind

Supplyship Yancey

Supplyship Merrick

Submarine Sennet

Antarctica Base 211 entrance, location: -66.553217, 99.838294

The aircraft carrier USS Philippine Sea also participated, although it was not assigned to any of the groups.

The need for supply ships, seaplane tenders, ice breakers and communication ships are necessary for such an operation, but the use of two destroyers, an aircraft carrier and a submarine, was somewhat suspicious for carrying out surveys.

Operation Highjump has become a topic among UFO conspiracy theorists, who claim it was a covert U.S. military operation to conquer alleged secret underground Nazi facilities in Antarctica including "The Base 211" (211 = 2 11's, meaning- '11:11') and capture the German Vril flying discs, or Thule mercury-powered spaceship prototypes.

Many conspiracy articles and discussions examine a postwar encounter reported near a British Antarctic camp with uniformed Germans in an ice cave. This took place during a time when considered in the context, several German U boats, a large amount of building supplies and German scientists identified by Operation Paperclip were still unaccounted for. This added credibility to the possibility of a Nazi base; and this was the real motivation for a subsequent operation.

For Ex-Nazi high ranking officials, it was common knowledge that Adolf Hitler did not commit suicide in 1945, but fled to Argentina, then to an SS base under the ice in New Swabia during the early 1950s where he resumed his career as a painter. According to this knowledge, the Operation Highjump expedition was sent after Hitler and the remaining Nazis who were now living in the Antarctic in a submerged base. Their orders were to wipe out all Nazi presence. Though Operation Highjump remains one of the few post war operations with documents still "Classified" by the military, here's is the truth about the matter:

At the end of January 1947, a full-scale aerial reconnaissance began surveying the Antarctic region of Queen Maud Land. The mission went according to plan and tens of thousands of photos were taken. But then the expedition was terminated abruptly and the entire fleet fled the Antarctica in an incredibly fast retreat.

First a destroyer was lost. Almost half of their carrier based aircraft. Dozens of sailors and officers were killed. At first, this massive attack on the U.S. armada of ships was kept silent. But then, to commission investigation members of the U.S. Congress, Admiral Byrd, made a statement, saying:

"In the event of another war, America can be attacked by an enemy that has the ability to fly from pole to pole with incredible speed."

Before we recognize what attacked them, we need to go back 18 months in 1945, before Byrd's expedition began. This is when two German submarines entered the port of Mar del Plata, located in Argentina, and surrendered to authorities. These were not ordinary subs, they were from the "Fuhrer Convoy." The Fuhrer Convoy was a top secret fleet. The commander of U-boat U-530, spoke of his involvement in an operation, Codenamed: "Valkrie II." Two weeks before WWII ended, U-530, left the quay, heading for the shores of Antarctica. On board of the submarine were passengers with their faces covered, as well as Third Reich relics. The commander of another U-boat, U-977, Heinz Schaeffer, later testified that he followed the route. In fact, several German subs repeatedly followed this Antarctic route as early as before WWII started. Germany claimed the territory of Antarctica, calling it, "New Swabia." Later, Karl Doenitz slipped a strange phrase, stating, "My submariners have found a true paradise on Earth." By 1943, at the peak of the war with Russia, Grand Admiral Doenitz, utters another mysterious phrase, saying, "The German submarine fleet is proud at the other end of the world, we've made an impregnable citadel for our Fuhrer." A very small circle of insiders only understood these words.

What Doenitz had discovered were a series of large underground ice tunnels that formed for thousands of years from warm lake water that resides deep under miles of ice. It was a perfect condition for a secret base immune from storms and polar cold, totally hidden from outsiders and out of reach of the enemy. Germany did indeed create a top secret Antarctic base, Codename: "The Base 211."

By 1939, regular trips were made between Antarctica and Germany, in a specially modified research vessel called the "Swabia." By 1942, transfer of inhabitants to New Swabia had begun, including scientists, engineers, members and representatives of the Nazi Party and German State.

By the post war, American recruited German Scientist to work in the U.S. and this is how the secret of Base 211 was exposed. Thousands of highly qualified Third Reich specialists, had vanished and weren't listed as dead. Over 100 submarines had also vanished. They had evacuated from Germany to this new secret base in the Antarctic polar zone. The Germans who surrendered in Argentina confirmed this testimony; and it was then (at the end of 1946) that the famous polar explorer and Admiral of the U.S. Navy, Richard Byrd, received the order to destroy the Nazi base in Antarctica. But things went terribly wrong. The attack from the resistance was made up of fighter jets and an armada of UFO flying saucers. Byrd stated, "They emerged from the water at high speed, causing heavy damage to the expedition."

This secret battle took place on February 26th, 1947, which is described by experienced pilot, John Sireson:

"They flew vertically out of the water in fury, slipping between the masts of the ships with such speed that the air flow perturbed and dislodged the radio antenna. I didn't have time to blink an eye, the two Corsairs from the Casablanca were slain by some kind of mysterious ray shot from the nose section of the flying saucers. They then dived into the water near the ships. At the time I was on the Casablanca's deck, and saw it as you now see me. I didn't understand, these objects were silent as they floated between ships, like satanic beast spitting deadly fire. Suddenly, I saw the destroyer, 'Murdoch,' which was about 120 feet away' the flames flashed and it began to sink. Despite the danger, rescue teams and lifeboats were immediately dispatched to the disaster site from other ships; the nightmare lasted about 20 minutes. When the saucers again dived under the water, we evaluated our losses. They were terrifying."

These were not saucers of German origins as described earlier in this Book. They were from an alien source. Apparently, the Ahnenerbe Society, the most mysterious organization in the Third Reich made contact and paired with an alien species, by way of occult study and mysticism. No organization in the world had at its disposal, such a volume of data, or had such influence on the development of occult technology, as the Ahnenerbe. The Ahnenerbe founders were drawn from the highest ranks of the Third Reich. Reichsführer Himmler approved the research of occult knowledge and paranormal phenomena by the Ahnenerbe. Hitler instructed Himmler.

NOTE: Ahnenerbe translates to: "Legacy of our Ancestors."

Specialists in the occult were brought in to communicate with these unearthly beings. The communication was successful. A full study of Atlantis was underway as this was thought to be the original home of the Aryan race. Therefore Germany was the rightful heir to Atlantean technological knowledge. This is where giant ships and flying vehicles were driven by unknown force.

The Map

There's no doubt that Ahnenerbe members knew of an amazing map that was discovered by historians in 1929. The famous Turkish Admiral, Piri Reis, created the map in the early 16th century. The shocking fact is the way the map's detail, mirrors the real Antarctic coast. This was 300 years before the continent's official discovery.

In his map notes, the Admiral wrote that he drew it from numerous sources, some at least three thousands years old. But the most puzzling thing was the coastline of Antarctica is shown without its ice cover. This map was more precise than 20th century maps of Antarctica. Areas that appear to be land mass are actually islands. One Hypothesis states that Antarctica is the former Atlantis. From this discovery, manuscripts were searched all over the world from Tibet to South America.

The Antarctic Portal

Shining saucers, spheres, cigar-like objects, Emerging out of the water in the polar and surrounding areas, are not unusual facts. The northern countries, Central and South America, Australia, South Africa; are areas of UFO activity. Reports on these UFOs were regularly received by USSR Navy intelligence.

In 1973, Japanese researchers using the latest equipment detected 19 UFO saucer shaped objects, which dived from space into Antarctica, and disappeared in thin air as if they were entering a wormhole to another galaxy.

American astrophysicist, Kip Thorne and his colleagues' substantiated the possibility of nearly instantaneous movement in space and time travel. This is where the wormholes, and black hole ideas were fully studied. These studies revealed that black holes are located at close distances to our planet, and take the form of wormholes. These wormholes

These wormholes can be used for intergalactic and interstellar travel.

Other scientist suggests their work has significance practical characteristics. Specifically, building time travel devices: ensuring intergalactic travel. Kip Thorne concluded that near Earth, there's an entrance into a wormhole leading to the star, Vega.

It was clear at this point, how exactly the appearance and disappearance of UFOs take place. Once this was evident, a powerful radio-electronic complex called HAARP was invented. Officially, it was to study the ionosphere, and the development of missile defense systems. Secretly, it was developed as a weapon for geophysical, weather and psychotropic. In essence, a massive beam cannon, a type of global microwave oven can be used to manipulate weather. It created Hurricane Katrina and the earthquake and tsunami in Japan, 2011. This is called "Weather Warfare." A weapon like this can kill millions of people while the procurer of the weapon stays silent and the death tool is seen as "An Act of God." With these powerful antennas, the entire Earth could be split in half. At a minor frequency, civilizations could be lost overnight.

In addition to this, there was something else. These antennas can be used to search for the entrance to wormholes, which in conclusion, the polar region has been found as the entrance to wear the wormhole is located. So Kip Thorne's theory was in fact, correct. Transdimensional beings are using these wormholes for galactic travels exiting into other dimensions and entering into Earths atmosphere. Time travel is real.

H.A.A.R.P. Antennas

The HAARP station's radio waves allow it to determine the wormhole's configuration then trace it back, and find where the entrance and exits are. In 1998, an Alaska HAARP facility was erected. Then, an identical transmitter was built in Norway. Now there's a third located in Greenland. There is no reason to continue to build HAARP facilities all over the world unless it's being used as a weapon to kill mankind.

The Antarctica Portal has been confirmed. This is used, as an entrance point from where UFO emerges into the atmosphere of our planet, and through Alaska, the north portal, is where they leave our planet. These facts do not contradict another fact that the North Pole can be used as an entrance, and the South Pole can be used as an exit. We now know that both Poles link out planet with other planets and stars, on the level of energetic-information.

The Germans knew this and called it, "Hollow Earth." Not that the Earth is hallow, but instead, can be used for interstellar travels (gateways to other stars, other worlds). This was the real reason why Antarctica attracted Germans to its shores. Today, there are two know alien bases that are commingled with humans in Antarctica.

When the Germans first arrived, the expedition was friendly and they used a group with telepathic powers to communicate with the beings. It appears once communication was established, the Germans were invited to stay and build under the Antarctica ice. But when the American came in a hostile fashion, The Germans warned the alien race and the aliens, with their advanced technology, attacked the Americans as a defense, winning the battle within 20 minutes. These aliens are not hostile. It's evident that they could have destroyed every ship under the command of Admiral of the U.S. Navy, Richard Byrd, but they didn't. Instead it was more of an intimidation tactic to wear down the American enemy.

Flight of The Fallen

I have studied the bible for over 30 years, and I believe there are well over 20,000 pages of concentrated archives missing. We know there was an era dinosaurs millions of years ago, and during this time remnants of man walked the Earth, yet it doesn't appear in any scriptures. After the deluge of Noah, there are 6000 years missing. We are taught that the Egyptians built the pyramids but that's not true. The pyramids were there before the Egyptians arrived in Egypt. The bible doesn't talk about Gray Aliens or Reptoids, and mermaids, yet they exist. Spiritual books don't mention the Metatron (who is the most significant angel created by IEUE) and yet he does exist.

In life, a name has to be killed before history can be re-written. If you continue to kill the name by renaming or perverting the true story of that name, at some point good names become evil as an evil name becomes good. There is not a Hollywood film that depicts the name "Ra" as a humble loving King who walked into Egypt, but the truth is, Ra was the Son of IEUE and disguised himself, before being murdered within the Great Pyramid walls.

NOTE: In this section I will refer to IEUE as "I AM," because that is how HE was known before the time of Moses.

Before you try and comprehend something that seems like a story out of a science fiction novel, I want you to know that you have been perfectly programmed your whole life to believe what is not true, to be true, and the truth to be more of a fantasy or lie. On Earth, everything concerning "Earth," is written. The history of dinosaurs, reptiles, space vehicles, foreign creatures of the earth and sea are all written in some way, shape or form. Today we write on paper, 2,000 years ago we wrote on papyrus, 10,000 years before that we drew on cave walls, but ten million years ago we carved on rocks. Man has always recorded, events.

On an expedition in Peru, my team and I found ancient rocks that had carvings of dinosaurs on them. Later that week I was taken to a museum vault where thousands of rocks were stored. To my amazement, some of the rocks illustrated a story of how some dinosaurs were used as pets and were friendly to humans.

In the Amazon jungle, the Metatron wrote Earth's incredible history carved in ancient hieroglyphics. This history lesson will answer questions that lead up to the secret events that are taking place below us today. The entire story can be found in a book called, "Revelations of The Metatron," but I will brief you on bits before showing the correlation between the fall of Satan and today's alien bases.

During the formation of Earth, there was a team effort that is not taught in any earthly religions. This team was made up of IEUE The CREATOR of ALL (known then as, "I AM"), along with the Holy Spirit, and the Amilous (Son of I AM).

"Now, during the formation of life on Earth, all Heavily Beings concentrated on the Newness. But, only the Holy Spirit, the Amilous-and Bael, Michael and Belzebel- observed the actual Process Of the Development of Life."

-Revelation of the Metatron (Page 94)

I AM aloud the Holy Spirit and the Amilous to take part in the development of life. They could form an idea and if "I AM" was pleased with it, HE would create it. If HE weren't pleased, HE would refine the idea and then create. For example:

The Thought if the Holy Spirit was that by Transposing this To the things of Life through the purest of liquids-water- That it could be Utilized to Renew the elements of Life, Replacing the new and Ridding of the old would Develop better Life.

It was Not the only way to Develop Life But it was the most Perfect way, For God Perceived the Units of Life Forming together as one Each with the Knowledge of the other.

The elements in Life Mixed with water And new Strains Formed and Grew. And as God Desired, they became more Beautiful as they Spread About the warmed surface of the Earth.

Then God Attested to All, "Henceforth, water and the Holy Spirit Shall be thought of As Generation of the Growth of Life."

"And the Blessing of water shal be Known to Life Through the Holy One. Life shall be inspired and Blossom Forth with both. And Life shall be Blessed with water"

-Revelation of the Metatron (Page 90-91)

So the Holly Spirit thought was, "Water," and I AM created it. This is why today we associate water with the Holy Spirit.

Remembering the idea of water by the Holy One, the Amilous had an idea of, "Blood." His thought was using one strand of blood to create a tiny creature. I AM was pleased and created this creature with one strand of blood, and this creature was never to evolve to remind all of the first creature to live with a single strand of blood. It was called, "WORM." Till this day, an earth worn still looks the way it did millions of years ago, still holding one strand of blood.

"Then from the blood The Unit of Life Generated the most efficient of Animal Life. And the (worm) Became the basis of blood."

-Revelation of the Metatron (Page 95)

The creation of life on Earth continued. At one point, Bael noticed that the "Coils of Life can change." Realizing this, he asked I AM to be allowed to utilize his knowledge to further the development of a creature that had not been known before. I AM knew how greatly Bael (Satan) wanted to please HIM, so he granted Bael's request. Using Bael's knowledge, I AM created a small creature with wings and Bael called it, "Fly."

All spirits marveled at this new creation. More creations came about and then Bael asked I AM to let him develop new creatures, and furthered requested to be granted a limited use of the force to manipulate the Coils of Life, so that he could create his own creatures.

Never before had any Being asked for this kind of power, All that were in the heavens were astonished. I AM was pleased with Bael's thoughts of the fly and its great Newness, so HE granted Bael (the last formed Archangel) his petition, and Bael began to form a new set of creatures that he called, "Reptiles." These new formed reptiles was pleasing to I AM so HE gave similar authority to Belzebel to formulate life in the sea. Michael was also given authority to expand life on land with the exception of reptiles because these creations belonged to Bael. But later something goes wrong.

Bael went into the bowels of the Earth and used the Coils of Life to turn himself into an Earthly shape of a serpent, so that all of his insects and serpents would recognize him. He added gigantic wings, protruding horns, giant genitals, strange head, unusual tails, and a slippery scaly body. I AM was not pleased.

Michael could not resist a similar experience to make an Earthly form and I AM knew this so HE sent a vision to Michael of a marvelous creature of beauty. Then Michael used this vision and transposed himself into a magnificent pure radiantly white figure with gigantic wings.

Belzebel attempted to duplicate Michael's new form, but it didn't work. Instead, it resulted in Belzebel looking like a half amphibian with wings that looked like fish fins. Belzebel (the only Angel who had a resistance against salt water) became the King of the sea, where mermaids were formed with all kind of sea life unknown to man.

Bael became king of the Reptiles. I AM was not pleased with the appearance of Bael and Belzebel so the Amilous, other Archangels and Angels received from I AM a vision of Earthly forms that they would assume if they Appeared upon the Earth. The Holy Spirit was not allowed these visions or knowledge, nor where soles, because I AM did not desire it. I AM was too vast to take an Earthly form so HE took apart of HIMSELF to create a superb physique and a magnificent physiognomy that was superior to all others. HE presented HIMSELF for all to see. It was a perfect Earthly creature creation. Even Bael was overwhelmed by the CREATOR's presence.

I AM created a thought form of Bael that he desired Bael to have. It was with great brilliance that equaled Michael's brilliance. I AM gave Bael a choice of harnessing the angelic garment of I AM, or to keep the monstrous image that Bael had created. Bael felt his creation was just as marvelous as Michael's appearance so he kept his large demonic appearance.

As time passed, Bael wove the Coils of Life so that monsters were produced that began dominating the Earth and all other creatures. His reptiles began to destroy all other flesh and monopolized the vegetation on Earth. I AM requested that Bael restrain those in his domain, but Bael refused. This was the fist time any "Thing" disobeyed, I AM.

"Then the Omnipotent One, To Show Physical Power Against the Physical Creatures of Bael, Sent huge fire-balls, Trailing toxic gaseous elements About the upper surface of the Earth. And the toxic elements, Mixed with the Life Sustaining Atmosphere Because Compressed by the fire-balls Into a thin layer about the Earth. And the Earth Was Caused to Turn From the Pull Of the Circling masses." "Only the small Animals, those Shielded by Rocks or caves, Those beneath the waters, those at the end of the planet, Only those Lived- as did the Plants that were Sheltered. But the large Reptiles of Bael were nearly Obliterated."

“Then, as the Earth Turned From the great Pull of the fire-balls, The Death Dealing vapors were gone. And Bael was cast into the Abyss.”

-Revelation of the Metatron (Pages 108-109)

Lucifer is the King James Version rendering of the Hebrew word--הִלֵּל Isaiah 14:12. This word, transliterated This word, transliterated hêlêl or heylel, occurs only once in the Hebrew Bible, and according to the KJV:

Strong's Concordance means, "Shining one, morning star, Lucifer." The word Lucifer is taken from the Latin Vulgate which translates הִלֵּל as Lucifer, meaning "The morning star, the planet Venus" (or, as an adjective, "Light-bringing"). The Septuagint renders הִלֵּל Greek as Heōsphoros, a name, literally "Bringer of dawn," for the morning star. This is why the Freemasons call him Lucifer the Light-bearer as seen in this passage:

"The Apocalypse is, to those who receive the nineteenth Degree, the Apotheosis of that Sublime Faith which aspires to God alone, and despises all the pomps and works of Lucifer. LUCIFER, the Light-bearer! Strange and mysterious name to give to the Spirit of Darkness! Lucifer, the Son of the Morning! Is it he who bears the Light, and with its splendors intolerable blinds feeble, sensual, or selfish Souls? Doubt it not!"

-Albert Pike "Morals and Dogma" (Page 321)

Here's what the Freemasons don't know about their leader's (Satan/Lucifer) past. After the global genocide of the dinosaurs ordered by I AM, the CREATOR, did something that not even the Amilous (Son of I AM) could comprehend. HE pulled Bael from the abyss and made him King of the First Heaven.

Then the Almighty Conveyed to All, "Henceforth, Bael may Not Come Upon the Earth! But Bael shall have Dominion over the First Heaven! And he shall be Known as the King of the First Heaven!"

-Revelation of the Metatron (Page 110)

I AM created Seven Heavens, and the First Heaven was made of a pure white light. Only I AM has mingled in the center of this vast light. It's a place for purification. This is how Bael (Satan/Lucifer) truly became the "Barer of Light." Bael saw his new title as a reward, and this displeased I AM, so the CREATOR equally gave dominions to other Archangels stating:

"Henceforth, Subject to the Almighty and the Trinity, Each Archangel shall be charged with a Heaven. Belzebel shall have the Second Heaven, Michael the Third Heaven, Gabriel the Fourth, Baraqiel the Fifth, Raphael the Sixth. The One with the most Organized Thinking, Uriel, Shall Command, Directly Subject to the Lord God, the Holy One and the Amilous, The Seventh Heaven. And Uriel shall be directly Aided by The Metatron, The Sandalphon and all the Heads of Angels. And each Chief of Angels of each Heaven, Shall be Subject to their Archangel. And all Archangels shall be Further Guided in the Use of the force, to Harmonize all in their care, With the Almighty God, Creator of All in the I AM."

-Revelation of the Metatron (Pages 108-109)

As Bael purified souls in the white light of the First Heaven, he was given the name, "Dispenser of Evil Punishment," which became, "D-Evil." Today people use the word "Devil," not realizing that this word was not originated as a bad word of demonic origin. Calling someone a "Devil" is like calling them a punisher who rids others of evil.

Bael performed 32 more disobedient rolls until I AM stripped him from his name and title and condemned him to the Abyss. Even from the Abyss and after the void he continued his disobedience.

Man was formed, and I AM sent Angels to Earth to guide and rule over man. These angels were given the title "King," and the Amilous, who watched over them, was called the "King of Kings."

In Book-1, I give a full description of how Bael tricked an abundance of Angels to enter the Abyss with him. In short, these angels were rescued and sent to Earth for cleansing. They became corrupt for 6,000 years. The Amilous came to Earth as, Rael. He traveled into Egypt as a King affectionately known as Ra. Baal knew his true identity and warned his fallen angels. The fallen took Ra into the Great Pyramid, strapped Him down and poured salt all over his body, killing him.

NOTE: An Angel (in his corporal form) has skin like a slug or snail; they disintegrate with the application of salt. This is why they lived so high up far away from salt water. Belzebel was the only angel that was allowed by I AM to live in salt water. Salt was used as a torturing tool or a tool of death, on angels.

I AM held Bael (who I AM had renamed Baal, The Satan The Adversary) in the Abyss for 1,000 Earth years. I AM gave the fallen angels of Earth 1,000 years to redeem themselves before he would remove them from Earth.

Instead of redemption the fallen became worse, and at the 900-year mark (Knowing they only had 100 years left before I AM would remove them) they decided to remove themselves. For 100 years, the fallen (with the help of good Angels), constructed a massive armada of space vehicles (UFOs). When complete, Belzebel (now called Belzebub, re-named by I AM) tracked a star that had water but this star was not within Earth's sun. They called it, "Sirius"(which is known today as the home of Satan). I AM knew of this plan but didn't intervene.

Earth was littered with rock formations (Ley Lines) that formed latitude and longitude lines throughout the entire Earth as seen here. Angels changed the frequency of these large rocks and boulders. This allowed a single human to float a gigantic rock in the proper place as instructed (these boulders normally sat on top of underground streams).

Example of Ley Lines

Using the Ley Lines and the power of crystals atop several pyramids, the vast armada took flight. Baal was released from the Abyss because the thousand years had come to an end. The crystals on top of the three pyramids of Egypt, Atla and the island of Ba, were aligned to give the armada of UFOs a trust into space.

Baal knew the secrets to the crystals and intensified the harmony of light, in efforts to destroy the Armada of space vehicles in a revenge attempt. The light turned into thermal power, and for a brief time it was greater than the light of the sun. It disintegrated the lush green areas of Egypt below the pyramids.

NOTE : The Pyramids of Giza were built on a mountain and not at sea level. The force of an earthquake caused by Baal intensifying the crystals caused the mountain to be leveled at sea level where the pyramids rest today. The Earth was scorched by the intensity. Atla erupted in a fierce violent earthquake and it was completely broken apart and totally descended into the sea. The crystals of both Egypt and Atla both disintegrated. The crystal of Ba did not disintegrate but did fall into the ocean. The entire crystal is still intact on the ocean floor unless today's aliens have gone down to collect it. After this, there was a giant tsunami and I AM brought all of the non-fallen Angels back to the heavens.

The Habitat of Aliens

During the days of the giants, there were two entities that are often represented as one in the same that included the fallen angels of Baal and the Watchers. These two are not the same, but separate angels who were disobedient to the IEUE. The Watchers were IEUE's Angels who were sent to help the fallen angels regain their angelic nature, but as the fallen took women for wives, so did the Watchers. Though the Watchers only took one wife opposed to the several that the fallen took, this was still an act of disobedience towards IEUE.

In "Book-I" of the Book of Enoch (Chapter 15) Enoch discusses the confinement of the fallen and the Watchers here on Earth. Earth became, and is still today a Petri dish of evil spirits, and an assortment of beings and hybrids.

"And now, the giants, who are produced from the spirits and flesh, shall be called evil spirits upon the earth, and on the earth shall be their dwelling. Evil spirits have proceeded from their bodies; because they are born from men and from the holy Watchers is their beginning and primal origin; they shall be evil spirits on earth, and evil spirits shall they be called. [As for the spirits of heaven, in heaven shall be their dwelling, but as for the spirits of the earth which were born upon the earth, on the earth shall be their dwelling. And the spirits of the giants afflict, oppress, destroy, attack, do battle, and work destruction on the earth, and cause trouble: they take no food, but nevertheless hunger and thirst, and cause offences. And these spirits shall rise up against the children of men and against the women, because they have proceeded from them.]"

-Book I: Book of Enoch (Chapter 15:1-7)

Here we see the development of evil spirits and how they are all imprisoned here on Earth. Now let's look at the fallen angels. In ancient Sumerian language, the term Annunaki meant "From Heaven who came to Earth." These were fallen angels.

According to the Bible, the Book of Enoch, Jubilees, Jasher, and Testimony of the Twelve Patriarchs, the Annunaki rebelled against I AM and attempted to enslave the whole world and provoke I AM. According to the Book of Jasher, they not only tweaked with the D.N.A. of mankind but also with the animals, creating Pegasus, Minotaur, the unicorn, mermaids and Reptoids.

Spacecrafts from Sirius returned to Earth. Satan now governs Earth, 3rd and 4th Dimension. Only humans are allowed to walk the Earth. Fallen angels and various alien can only live in the abyss and valleys of the Earth, such as caves and caverns, deep ocean abyss, inside mountains and in the depths of the Earth. According to the Keys of Enoch, this is commanded by all non-human beings of intelligence. Satan knows of I AM's command, and he is creating hybrids for demons to control humans.

For years, Scholars speculated that one-day hybridization would create the antichrist and that these fallen angel/aliens would develop and produce a creature that is fully fallen, yet fully man. They were absolutely correct. Cloning is something that has been present here on Earth since the creation of the Nephilim and Raphiem. Once Earth was established as a habitation for evil beings, it appears that a dimensional gate hole was opened for several creatures that don't belong here. It's as if Satan invited comrades to help with his "Order of the New World Agenda." In the Keys of Enoch, aliens are mentioned and are described as beings with high intelligence that come from a lower dimension (2nd dimension) below Earth. Their appearance is described as detestable so that humans know not to commingle with them. They are aware of IEUE (but not one with Him), and their life force carries no souls. They are being who have no expression. They are like workers ants that love only advancing technology, which make good for the fallen angels who still reside hidden within Earth.

There are two factions or groups within the Annunaki, known as the Enki and the Enlil. The Enki faction of the Annunaki includes, but not limited to:

-Greys from Zeta Reticulum (small Greys with the oversized heads) as seen in these three photos to the right. The Zeta Gray has a slight permanent smile. There are also Tall Greys, but unlike the small Greys, The Tall Greys mouth area has a permanent angry or sad appearance as seen below.

Both diets consist of none food or water. They consume small amounts of adrenaline that comes from humans and animals. It's a sort of liquid protein. They also feed off of life energy. They are incredibly insensitive to humans as they are strictly programmed to serve themselves.

-Reptilians (Earth based), Lizards. These are notably in charge of establishing a one-world government through our political leaders. Shape-shift into human form and also use humans as hosts to possess and work through.

-Draco-Reptilians are the ones really running the Illuminati, while others do their bidding. These beings are remnants, if not fallen angels. They now hold the appearance and reptilian garment of Satan. The Draco's are the rulers over the Grays and the reptilians. (There are some who believe the Nordic humanoids are Reptilians in disguise). The Draco's are shape-shifters and they are Annunaki lizard.

-Annunaki - Those who joined in Lucifer's rebellion against the IEUE. Enki factions of the Annunaki, also include Draconian, inhabitants of Rahab (giant humanoids).

I have a theory that the fallen angels lost their "Garment of IEUE" and replaced it with the "Reptilian Garment" of Satan. From the hieroglyphics of the Metatron, we see that at IEUE gave Bael (Satan) a choice to wear the Garment that IEUE had prepared for him that was equal to the Angelic Garment of Michael (Garment meaning appearance), or to keep the detestable reptilian garment that Bael had created for himself. It only makes since that Satan would want to see his "Fallen" in his own image.

These lizard giants have been around since before the days of Adam, walking on two legs. There is a sculpture found in Göbekli Tepe, Turkey that dates back 10,000 B.C. Here, an Egyptian Thoth as a bearded man/serpent, clearly showing how much ancient Egyptian civilization owed to the preceding Sumerian civilization. From the Americas to the Middle East and the Pacific Rim, serpent creatures have history around the world. Even the Grays have been here for thousands of years. To the right is a photo of a mummified Egyptian Gray. The Egyptians also included extra-terrestrials into their hieroglyphics as seen at the bottom right.

The top right is an Anunnaki statue, and the painting to the right is the Toltec Mayan god Gucumatz, known as the "serpent of wisdom," and also known for enlightening mankind.

Historical Data Regarding Aliens and the Government

Here are historical accounts (in chronological order from 1928-2001) of treaties and communication between global governments and Extra-Terrestrial (E.T.) entities.

1928 -- Thomas Brown discovered a relationship between electrical capacitance and gravitational control. His work was subsequently taken over by the government.

1930 -- In 1930, Dr. Henry Coanda began work on aerial craft that were lenticular in shape.

1932 -- In 1932, Adolph Hitler was in control of the German society enough to force scientists to work in laboratories on advanced aircraft designs. Aided by the implosion vortex technology of Viktor Schauberger, and the technical expertise of scientists like Schriever, Habermohl, Ballenzo and Miethe, the Germans began flying aerial craft as early as 1938. There is physical evidence that the Germans recovered a crashed alien disk in 1937. As a result of all this technology, the German scientific effort was pushed forward and was conducted at several underground research facilities at Reinickendorf, Kummersdorf and Thuringia.

1934 -- The earliest "Pilotless aircraft" were produced in 1934, and has some moderate degree of success. The United States was quite aware of the German technical progress and sent an American named Wilson to Germany to give technical assistance, but he was instructed to keep an eye on German technology. It was probably by virtue of Wilson that the Germans never used their gravitational craft en masse in the war, for Wilson attained a high position in the German technical community, and switched propulsion methods from gravitational to advanced jet propulsion in an apparent effort to get technology out there to fight the war. Because of this, German gravitational research remained in the labs and stayed in the R&D phase until around 1941, when the Schriever/Miethe designs were successfully tested.

It was clearly a situation where the war was going on faster than the Germans could technically develop their designs.

1944 -- Hampered by sabotage and deliberate technical misguidance from Wilson, as well as delays in metallurgical research which didn't result in an acceptable alloy of magnesium and aluminum until 1944, the Germans could only continue to harass allied pilots with the "Fireballs," pilotless craft developed and used since 1942 which emitted electrical fields that interfered with the operation of aviation engines.

1945 -- In 1945, the British discover German plans for advanced craft and joined the efforts of the United States to subvert the German program. On February 16, 1945, despite allied efforts, the Germans successfully flew a crew-carrying version of the "fireball" from the underground facilities in Thuringia. The craft had a top speed of over 1,250 mph. The craft was called the "Kugelblitz."

The Germans in the scientific community knew the war was lost as early as 1942. They decided to establish a plan for continuing the dream of the Third Reich despite the war. They decided that the establishment of a separate society founded on Nazi principles of genetic purity was the answer. The development of gravitational technology aided that plan. On February 23, 1945, the newest engines of the Kugelblitz were tested and then extracted from the craft. The Kugelblitz was blown up by SS personnel and the scientists, plans and engines were shipped out of Germany to the South Polar regions, where the Germans had maintained underground construction activity since 1941. Two days later, on February 25, 1943 the underground plant at Khala was closed and all the workers sent to Buchenwald and gassed.

The Germans also sent their "Aryan elite" children and other elements of their society to the underground base. General Hans Kammler, who disappeared in April 1945, was instrumental in the evacuation operation, as was General Nebe. There, the Germans developed a eugenic society that apparently is limited to a specific number of people. They're still there. Apparently they also maintain technical colonies in South America.

On May 7, 1945, Germany surrendered. Both the Americans and Soviets gained access to elements of German disk technology and scientists, which the Germans had neglected to eliminate before the hasty departure at the close of the war. The Canadians also had access to some of the data that the United States had acquired, as well as some data directly from the German efforts.

On July 16, 1945, the United States detonated their first nuclear explosion in New Mexico. By August 15, 1945, the Japanese had "been induced to surrender", despite the fact that the Japanese government had offered to surrender on February 14, 1945 and again in June 1945. Both offers were refused by the United States, who preferred to use the nuclear device on them two months later, as planned. It is most probably that the nuclear detonations also attracted the attention of non-human entities.

1946 -- In 1946, the United States imported German SS intelligence officers in an effort to form what later became the Central Intelligence Agency. This was part of a plan conducted by Allen Dulles in 1943, when a deal was cut with German intelligence to provide the United States with a viable intelligence operation as well as provide German intelligence with a place to go after the war. Good inducement, indeed.

1947 -- In 1947, powerful radar in the Midwest causes the crash of several alien disks, the most notable of which were at Roswell and Aztec, New Mexico. The disks recovered had a reptilian species on board, as well as the bodies of United States Air Force pilots. There was evidence that the bodies had been mutilated. In June 1947, Kenneth Arnold coins the term flying saucer.

The Germans, after the war, started flying over the United States in their disks, which had by then achieved a remarkable degree of development. This prompted the United States to carry out plans to establish both the exact location of the German hidden base at the Pole, and to decipher their technical capabilities.

In 1947, Operation High-jump was conducted at the Pole in an attempt to locate the Germans. It was a failure. The Germans, teamed with alien allies used their technology to prevent the efforts of the United States search. It wasn't until 1958 during the International Geophysical Year that another major attempt to locate the Germans was made. Various polar expeditions that occurred in between 1947 and 1958 had intelligence as part of their design, and also seemed to evoke activity from other forces and entities from inside the Earth. There was an abundance of evidence that the Germans made contact with alien forces from inside the planet during the stint at the pole.

In 1947, the United States decided that the problem with both Germans and aliens was becoming dangerous. It was necessary to implement severe measures in order to hide the truth of alien presence. The German problem was easier to control as far as public knowledge was concerned. In September of 1947, Truman passed the National Security Act in order to hide the activities of the Government, CIA and the alien problem. CIA mind control projects began at Bethesda Naval Hospital in 1947, with data gained from German SS intelligence. Truman also created a study group in order to control the alien problem. A series of National Security Council (NSC) memos removed the CIA from the sole task of gathering foreign intelligence and slowly legalized direct action in the form of covert activities. The memos, including NSC-10/1 and NSC-10/2, established a buffer between the President of the United States and the activities that were going on, as well as providing means for the President to deny knowledge of any covert activities.

It was decided that more knowledge was needed about the various types of alien craft. Project Sign, created on December 30, 1947, and established at Wright Field, was designed to investigate disk technical capabilities and performance. There was still the problem of evaluation of the disks that had been recovered. It was decided that the Navy Auxiliary Field in the Groom Mountains in Nevada would be the ideal spot to do the testing.

1948 -- In August 1948, Project Sign prepared a Top Secret estimate of the situation, which was designated as Air Intelligence Report 100-203-79.

After reviewing the report, General Hoyt Vandenburg ordered the report destroyed. Not all copies of the report were destroyed. In December 1948; at least one still survived. Project Sign was re-designated as Project Grudge, with public version to be known as Project Bluebook. The liaison between Project Grudge and MJ-12 was the Air Force officer in charge of Project Bluebook, Captain Edward Ruppelt.

1949 -- 1949 was also the year that construction started on AEC property located on the Nellis Range portion of the complex. This area was designated to perform testing and evaluation of alien technology. It was also another year that German and alien disks started flying in the United States once again. As a response to this activity and the general alien problem, the CIA Act of 1949 was enacted, giving the agency more capability to act outside the bounds of established defense in order to guarantee that the alien problem remained inside the government. At that point, the CIA office of Scientific Intelligence began to review civilian reports of sightings in order to determine the scope of the suppression effort.

It was in 1949 that the Soviet Union detonated their first above ground nuclear bomb. It is uncertain whether the Soviet effort to produce a nuclear device was aided by the delivery to them of one kilogram of uranium in the 1943 by the United States, or the subsequent delivery of nuclear weapons plans to the Soviets in the same year by President Roosevelt under the Lend Lease Program. A Major who was in charge of the transfer of Lend Lease supplies, discovered that at least three assignments of uranium chemicals totaling .75 ton, as well as documents and reports, were transferred to the Soviets.

Julius and Ethel Rosenberg were blamed for the Soviet weapons acquisition during the next year, and were summarily executed in order to cover up the technology exchange. President Roosevelt's son, James, wrote a book entitled, "A Family Matter" in which he details Roosevelt "Bold decision" to share the nuclear technology with the Soviet Union.

In 1949, alien craft were often seen hovering over sensitive nuclear installations, especially in New Mexico, and probes known as "Green fireballs" were frequently seen throughout the state. They were presumably monitoring something to do with radiation. One disk in particular crashed at Roswell, New Mexico. One of two of the crash sites exposed live alien to several witnesses. These aliens were named, "EBE" (Extra-terrestrial Biological Entity). It was a name coined by study group member, Detlev Bronk.

Secretary of Defense James Forrestal became dissatisfied with the whole handling of the alien problem. He voiced his concern to President Truman, who asked him to resign on March 3, 1949. Within one month, the White House confiscated all 3,000 pages of James Forrestal's diaries on the matter and locked the diaries up in a White House safe. Forrestal was sent to Bethesda Naval Hospital under the care of Dr. Raines. Forrestal's brother decided to take him out of the hospital, fearing for his brothers' life. On the same day his brother was due to pick him up, James Forrestal was found hanging outside of a 16th story windows of the hospital with a sheet around his neck. The sheet broke, and Forrestal fell to his death.

By December 1949, the government decided to close Project Grudge and divert efforts elsewhere.

1950 -- In 1950, Canadian scientist Wilber Smith reported in a letter that the disks were on of the most highly classified issues in the United States Government, even "Higher than the H-bomb," which President Truman ordered into production in January of 1950.

In 1950, problems continued with alien disks. There were near misses with commercial airline flights, and there were continued flights over sensitive military installations. By August of 1950, it was decided that General Walter B. Smith would assume Forrestal's vacant position in the study group. This was also the same month that the Government decided to seize all USS railroads in order to prevent a general strike.

In December of 1950, a unit called IPU, Interplanetary Phenomenon Unit, was established operational unit to deal with the ever-increasing scenarios of crashed disks and aliens. That same month a disk crashed in the El Indio-Guerro area of Mexico and was taken to the AEC facility at Sandia in New Mexico.

1951 -- In 1951, construction of the base at Groom Lake took on a more serious effort with Project Redlight. Information leaked out that several disks were stored at Wright Patterson AFB in Dayton, Ohio. Viking Press published a version of the Forrestal diaries.

Flying wing type aircraft were seen over Albuquerque. The alien named EBE suddenly became ill, and was worked on by a Dr. Mendoza for almost a year until 1952, when the alien died.

General MacArthur (famous for his statement about interplanetary travel being inevitable), was relieved of his command by President Truman.

In 1951, the CIA was essentially telling the public that it was closing its books on the "UFO" problem.

1952 -- President Truman created the National Security Agency (NSA) in 1952 to monitor and contain the secret of alien presence. The NSA deciphered alien communications and eventually establish an ongoing dialogue with any alien species that it could make communications with. Presidential Executive Order, exempts the NSA from all laws except those laws, which specifically mention the NSA.

President Truman kept the allies of the United States, including the Soviet Union, informed of the developing alien problem, since the recovery of the crashed disk in Roswell. This communication was initiated just in case it was discovered that the aliens turned out to be a threat. There was increasing threat to security with regards to these aliens. To solve this problem, a group known as the Bilderbergers was created in order to obtain decision-making about the alien problem. This also included other international issues that would be taken out of the hands of global governments. The Bilderbergers are headquartered in Geneva. This group evolved into an elite secret society that still controls international situations. Nelson Rockefeller, Gerald Ford, Henry Kissinger and George Bush are involved with the world control groups, and have been for many years.

1953 -- In 1953, Thomas Brown gave a demonstration of his "Electrogravitic" effect to the Air Force, who promptly took over the project. This was also the year that Eisenhower was elected. It was Eisenhower who appointed Rockefeller to head a group that would propose a reorganization of government. Eisenhower's favorite comment seemed to be, "Do whatever it takes." That comment seemed to form the basis for all actions in dealing with the alien problem from then on.

Project Sigma, created in 1953 and run by NSA, functioned to intercept and decrypt alien communications. With ten disk crashes, effort to maintain security took a supreme effort.

In 1953, Eisenhower asked Rockefeller for help with the alien problem. This is where the idea for MJ-12 was born. It was probably a critical mistake in asking a member of the World Control Group, for help with an extra-territorial problem.

Astronomers in 1953 made a rather disturbing discovery of a large object that entered our solar system, which later proved to be an object that was intelligently guided and emitted communication signals. The Air Force, in this same year, discovered huge orbiting objects between 100 to 500 miles altitude. They were alien craft.

Project Plato, governed by the NSA, endeavored to establish diplomatic relations with the alien species that had appeared. In 1953, the NSA was successful at this task, and the CIA, perceiving that more public disinformation was needed, and convened the Robertson Panel. The summation report, issued in January of 1953, stated that there was "No threat to national security from UFOs." By now, some of the aliens were known. Therefore, the semantics describing "Unidentified" flying objects could be fully used as unidentified. Contact was made in 1953 with a race known thereafter as the Big-nosed Grays. A meeting was arranged with the aliens at Holloman AFB in New Mexico for 1954. A Secret Treaty was formed where the aliens would not interfere in our affairs and we would not interfere with their affairs. We would let them do what they wanted and we also allowed the aliens to establish additional underground bases here in the U.S. in exchange for alien technology.

Concern or public probing into the "UFO" matter caused the government to come up with the idea of developing disks using conventional technology and then displaying them to the public. This would take the heat off the real programs. Project Snowbird was created for this purpose. It too, was headquartered in Nevada.

The United States and Canadians had been cooperating for some time on the disk technology, and in 1954 successful tests were made of some jointly developed disk designs. Project Redlight sustains its first death of an Air Force pilot in Nevada during a test of an alien vehicle. Project Pounce was created to provide a general process of disk and occupant recovery, as well as providing cover stories. The NSA ran Project Pounce. Project Plato, another NSA project, was initiated in order to establish a continuing program of technological evaluation of alien disks.

Increasing numbers of people in the public domain began to have encounters with alien beings. In order to retain the element of secrecy, the Air Force established a number of "Debriefing colonies" in the United States for "Contactees" and their families. This was a practice that continued well into the 1960's and is still in affect today.

The Government also had contact with another race of aliens in 1953. This race would not share technology with the government, and despite their warnings about the Big-nosed Grays, the government broke off contact with them. The U.S. preferred to allow the Grays to trade technology in mind control, beam weaponry and gravitation, for their silence in the alien abduction and mutilation operations.

1954 -- In 1954, Dr. Wilhelm Reich began experiments with his "Cloudbuster equipment," and discovered that he could affect the propulsion systems of some of the alien disks. Reichs discoveries also involved the manipulation of biological energy in terms of conquering disease. It didn't take the government long to realize what a threat Reich was to the established order, and Reich was hassled by his government then jailed. He was finally murdered in Lewisburg prison in November 1957.

1955 -- In 1955, a documentary film about UFOs was released from Hollywood in an attempt to de-mystify UFOs as far as the public was concerned. Allan Dulles authorized the CIA mind control program, in 1953. This project was called MKDELTA, and it took on a new insidious turn when mind control drugs began to be given to subjects in normal settings in order to observe the effects. Later, in 1956, testing of mind control drugs on prisoners would be approved.

The National Security Council (NSC) had established a "Deal" with the Big-nosed Grays. The Grays gave a periodic list of abductees to the NSC. By April of 1954, it became obvious to the Eisenhower's Administration that the Grays had broken the agreement and were abducting far more people than they reported, including large numbers of children.

Also in 1955, Henry Kissinger was chosen as the head of the Alien Study Group, know as the "JASON Society," under the National Security Council provision NSC 5411. NSC edict 5412/2 established the original study committee.

1956 -- In 1956 the group, publicly referred to as the Quantico group, was closed. The 5412 designation became public knowledge, but the purpose of the group remained secret.

In 1956, Captain Rudppelt, who left the Air Force in 1953, wrote and published his famous book "Report on Unidentified Flying Objects," He also made a statement that year about "A group of Germans having advanced aerial vehicles."

1957 -- By 1957, Joseph McCarthy was becoming a problem. He was admitted to Bethesda Naval Hospital where, of course, he mysteriously died.

In 1957, it was decided that the course of human evolution would make the planet uninhabitable by the year 2000; so various "Alternatives" were discussed.

Alternative 1 - Allow things to continue the way they were and hope things could be repaired.

Alternative 2 - Arrange for underground cities and facilities to be built in order to insure the survival of select groups of people.

Alternative 3 - Migration to other planets.

Both Alternatives 2 and 3 were chosen as being the most viable. Work was then started on both of them. In order to implement Alternative-3, alien technology would be needed. It was also necessary to push for more complete forms of mind control in order to insure a smooth flow of operations despite any opposition that might occur.

In 1957, work under Project Redlight began intensely in Nevada. A facility code named DREAMLAND was constructed in the proximity of an alien underground base known as "S-4." Here, the process of exchange of alien technology began.

1958 -- In 1958, International Geophysical Year, expeditions were made to the Poles in order to again assess the problem of the Germans, as well as the threat from aliens of different character that were detected as coming from inside the Earth. Work continued on Alternatives 2 and 3.

1959 -- In 1959, the RAND Corporation held several conferences on Deep Underground Construction. These conferences were attended by the various military services as well as large corporate construction firms like Bechtel. Underground construction projects began within a year. Existing underground facilities were greatly improved and new facilities were constructed. Funding for government underground facilities come from "Presidential Shelter" funds, as well as covert drug operation conducted by the CIA under the orders of MJ-12. This procedure is still in effect as of 2013. Over 75 underground facilities have been constructed under various programs. Each facility cost between $17-19 Billion to construct.

Also in 1959, Joseph Bryan, CIA Psychological Warfare Director, met with Major Donald Keyhoe in order to review cases, but Keyhoe refuses to review the cases. Captain Ruppelt, dissatisfied with governmental operations in terms of "UFO investigations" states that it is becoming an increasing problem.

1960 -- In 1960, Edward Ruppelt mysteriously dies of a heart attack. In that year, Project Aquarius is initiated in order to collect medical and technical information from alien technology. It was another NSA sponsored project. Ronald Reagan is governor of California. His personal secretary was a former translator for Germans in Eichmann during World War II.

1961 -- In 1961, Cape Canaveral/Kennedy radar locked onto an object that was following a Polaris missile over the ocean. Vice-president Johnson's private aircraft crashes. Radar showed UFOs in the area.

In 1961, John Kennedy was elected president. He orders NORAD not to divulge information about foreign space vehicles. Experiments with ultrasonic and brain lesions are performed by universities. Donald Keyhoe begins sending proof of his censorship to Congress. At Fort Ord, 221 military members are abducted and implanted with devices. These military members and their families are taken into captivity. Over 500 souls missing were concealed by the government.

By May 1961, a House subcommittee had been informed to look into the subject of UFOs. It was again discouraged and the problem seemed to disappear for a while. Kennedy, dissatisfied with some areas in the covert governmental structure, threatens to go public. In 1962 the Bilderbergers meet to discuss the problem of Kennedy's threat. It was at this point that talks of eliminating (assassinating) President Kennedy became an option.

1962 -- was the year that the American public watched John Glenn orbit the Earth in the manned "Space program," which was a public program designed to be a pool where funds could be siphoned off for work on covert projects. Some of these projects were in concerned with the development of alien technology.

1962 was also the year that a space probe was landed on Mars. It confirmed the presence of a viable atmosphere and further strengthened the push for Alternative 3 (elite moving to a new planet for habitation). The public around the area of Dulce, New Mexico, observes disk activity. This is an area that would later become famous for the site of a joint government alien facility.

1963 -- In 1963, President Kennedy issued an ultimatum to MJ-12. With cooperation from the Bilderbergers, it was decided that Kennedy would be subject to expediency (assassination). The Illuminati and Masonic Order agreed that Kennedy's murder would take place along the 33 Degree Parallel latitude line on Earth. He was to be murdered in the exact fashion of Hiram Abiff, which included a shot to the head, back and neck.

NOTE: The name Hiram Abiff is not found in Scripture, yet, the Masonic account of Hiram is often articulated as scripture from the Holy Bible. In the Master Mason degree, in that portion of the ritual known as the Legend of the Third Degree, there are three central characters. The story line is set around the building of Solomon's temple. The characters, King Solomon, Hiram - the King of Tyre and Hiram Abiff are all taken from the Scriptural account of the temple building. King Solomon and Hiram King of Tyre are mentioned many times in the Scriptures, such as in 1 Kings 5. About the closest the Scriptures come to Hiram Abiff is Hiram-Abi which is found in 2 Chronicles 2:13 in the NAS and NIV translations. Hiram is a variant of Hiram. In the KJV translation of the verse, the name Hiram is found. The KJV uses both Hiram (2 Chron 2:3) and Hiram (1 Kings 5) to identify Hiram the King of Tyre. The KJV translation of 2 Chron 2:13 does not contain -abi, but rather "Hiram my father's." The Hebrew word from which the KJV "Father's" was translated is "ab," according to the Hebrew Dictionary found in Strong's Concordance.

Strong's entry for the word 'ab (H1) indicates that it can also mean father-less, as the son of a widow would be. The entry for H1 also mentions "Abi-." Studying the various translations along with a Hebrew dictionary allows us to see how Freemasonry may have settled on the name Hiram Abi-ff, also sometimes spelled Abif.

Hiram King of Tyre wrote a letter to King Solomon, advising him that he was sending Hiram-Abi to work on the temple. That letter is documented in 2 Chron 2:11-14. The fact that Hiram-Abi was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali is confirmed in Scripture:

And king Solomon sent and fetched Hiram out of Tyre. He was a widow's son of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass: and he was filled with wisdom, and understanding, and cunning to work all works in brass. And he came to king Solomon, and worked all his work.

- 1 Kings 7:13-14 (KJV)

Although the most important element of Masonic symbolism deals with the death, burial and resurrection of Hiram Abiff, there is nothing in Scripture to support it. Masonic Grand Lodges have stated that the account is not based upon fact, but rather is an allegory, used to teach.

Kennedy's assassination was possessed with the signature of eleven (11). He was killed in the 11th month, on the 22nd day (11+11), on the 33rd parallel in the Masonic Dealey Plaza. It was an occult blood sacrifice of the decade.

1963 was the era when the United States first started having its own operational disks. 1963 is the date of one of the earliest visits to an underground joint base by an abductee that came back and lived to tell about it. It is the first hint of the underground breeding facilities that are described in the Dulce Papers, events surrounding Paul Bennewitz and Thunder Scientific Corporation in Albuquerque, New Mexico, and other insidious experiences that have been reported by scores of people from 1963 to 1989.

Within a month after Kennedy's murder, the Bilderbergers met again to formulate their plans. In England, mind control experiments began in Warminster. Lonnie Zamora's abduction case gave further impetus to public awareness of abduction by alien entities.

1964 -- In April 1964, Cape Kennedy radar technicians track disks in pursuit of the Gemini capsule. On April 15, two intelligence personnel meet under Project Plato with aliens in the New Mexico desert to arrange a meeting on April 25th at Holloman AFB, New Mexico. This meeting was initiated to renew the treaty between aliens and humans. This was a psychological bid to buy time in order to solve the problem of the alien Grays.

In May 1964, the book "The Invisible Government" was released, and many significant details about the operation of the CIA were released to the public.

In the summer of 1964, metal samples from the Socorro case were being analyzed. Scientist Ray Stanford stated that the samples were an unknown alloy. On August 20th, 1964, fifteen days after Stanford makes his statement, NASA scientist Sciacca states that the Socorro sample is silicon.

September 17, 1964 marked the release of the Warren Commission Report on the Kennedy assassination, intended to pacify the public about the event and obscure the details about the assassination. In December, disks were back again, buzzing the Pautexent Naval Air Station in Maryland.

1965 -- In 1965, the Bilderbergers meet again. George Adamski takes motion pictures of an object at Silver Spring, Maryland on February 26th, 1965. On March 18th, the Soviets give a less than adequate performance during the spacewalk of Leoniv. It's obviously a staged event not taking place in space. In June, astronaut James McDivitt sees an object in space and reports it. The government begins to review data about the earth energy grid system detailed by Dr. Bruce Cathie in New Zealand. It is believed that the energy grid provides power to sustain some of the implant systems and other equipment that the aliens use. It also provides (if the tilt of the earth is correct) the power to energize apparent "Window areas" on the planet and open dimensional doorways.

1966 -- In 1966, actual technology on-board alien disks far exceeded technology that was made available to the public. A research lab in Silicon Valley had developed three-dimensional (3D) televisions and had it perfected. Videotape was also in the process of being developed for release. The SR-71 Blackbird was designed and built. It was an aircraft that had advanced designs of special alloy skins allowing it to travel into space. It was around that time period that people became acutely aware of the series of underground tunnel systems that lie under California and the other Western States. These underground tunnels connected corporations and other facilities together.

1966 marked the end of the mind control experiments in Warminster, England. Cheyenne Mountain and its NORAD facility are deactivated, and the Bilderbergers meet again. Henry Kissinger, Olaf Palme (who would authorize the use of implants in Sweden in 1971 and subsequently be murdered), Gerald Ford and Schmidt from Germany were among the attendees. The NASA budget had swelled to over $572 million.

A 1966 Gallup Poll indicated that over eight million people had seen UFOs in the United States. Public interest increased. It was time to manipulate public opinion again. The Condon Committee was set up, chaired by Edward Condon, who admitted his forgone conclusion that UFOs didn't exist. The Condon Committee announced its results to the public, declaring the UFOs didn't really have any basis in reality. It was the beginning of a debunking process that would culminate in 1969 when the Air Force made a public announcement that they are closing Project Bluebook. Congressman Gerald Ford makes a declaration to Congress that they should look into the subject of UFOs. Two months later, in June 1966, disks interrupt tests at Pine Gap facility near Alice Springs, Australia where High Frequency Active Auroral Research Program (HAARP) is located.

In August 1966, Dr. J. Allen Hynek publicly criticizes scientists for not investigating UFO reports.

1967 -- In 1967, Astronomer James E. MacDonald sees a classified version of the 1953 Robertson Report and becomes a critic for the Air Force and the CIA. MacDonald makes a statement that UFOs may be visitors spying on the planet. Also in 1967, a large shipment of gold leaves Fort Knox, to a destination unknown.

In October 1967, Britain is hit by a wave of disk sightings. In December, the Schirmer case in Nebraska becomes the most interesting abduction case of the year. Schirmer is brought to an underground base and relates the details afterward.

1969 -- In 1969, Richard Nixon becomes president. Edward Condon releases his book titled, "Scientific Study of UFOs" in an attempt to further obscure the subject as far as the public is concerned. The U.S. Army Language School R&D department produces a brain nullifier device. The Air Force declares Project Bluebook abandoned out of lack of interest. The Brazilian Air Force issues a directive forbidding release of UFO info to the press. Donald Keyhoe, a longtime enemy of the government, is ousted from NICAP and replaced by CIA operative John Acuff.

On May 28, 1969, former president Eisenhower dies, marking the last time a President will have full knowledge of the whole alien situation until the election of President Bush in 1988.

On July 20th – 21st, 1969, the public observes Neil Armstrong landing on the Moon (in the wrong place). Armstrong and his crew view huge alien spacecraft surrounding their landing site. Ham Radios pick up the chatter involved in the incident.

A controversy erupted in 1969 over the 1950 Internal Security Act, which authorized detention camps in the United States. Senator Daniel Inouye introduced a bill to abolish the section of the Act, which dealt with detention camps, and it was quickly passed into law. Despite the government's official policy, some believe the law has been violated.

Years later, a suit was filed in U.S. District Court in Houston by businessman William Pabst, who charged that the federal government established secret concentration camps and mental hospitals for the purpose of jailing political dissidents. Pabst said that a massive computer system exists whereby government officials have access to the names of citizens in order to arrest and control them.

By 1969, the NASA budget has shrunk to a mere $44 million. They don't want any more intrusions into the operation on the moon.

In October of 1969, Jimmy Carter sees and reports a UFO.

1970 -- In 1970, the Bilderberges meet. The world population is 3.6 billion. In October 1970, Canadian Prime Minister Trudeau suspends the Canadian Bill of Rights, which allows search without warrant.

1971 -- In 1971, the Bilderbergers meet again, this time in Woodstock, Vermont. The Air Force still continues Project Bluebook. A bill is introduced again to repeal Title-2 of the Internal Security Act as far as detention camps are concerned.

In June 1971, Dr. James E. MacDonald mysteriously drives out into the desert and shoots himself in the head.

1972 -- In 1972, the Central Security Service (CSS) was created at Fort Meade. Purpose: communication interception. Project Redlight assumes a new phase of operations in Nevada. The first Watergate break-in occurs. Scientist Rene Hardy, also a prominent UFOlogist, is found dead. It was an apparent suicide. The CIA mind control project at Bethesda Naval Hospital ends. On June 12th, 1972, the second and most prominent Watergate break in occurs. In December, astronaut Edgar Mitchell admits that NASA has provisions for encounters with alien life forms. On December 25th, 1972, President Truman dies.

1973 -- In 1973, increasing numbers of aerial craft are being seen. A visit to the underground base at Twentynine Palms is documented by an Air Force member who takes pictures of an alien autopsy and an alien craft that is bigger on the inside than outside. Brazilian State Directive, Institutional Act No. 5, forbids dissemination of UFO related information. NICAP files are taken over by Hynek's Center for UFO Studies. Scientists again discover a large object moving toward the Earth. It is confirmed to be another alien craft.

On May 1973, Judy Doraty and her daughter Cindy witness a cattle mutilation and are abducted and implanted themselves.

1974 -- In 1974, large numbers of animal mutilations begin to occur in Texas. Hynek visits APRO headquarters and is denied access to their files. Nelson Rockefeller becomes vice-president. The Soviets begin their research into weather modification. An aviation photographer near Nellis AFB, Nevada, takes a photo of a disk. In February 1974, Robert Galley, French Minister for Defense, goes on television and publicly states that the disks are real.

1975 - In 1975, the NASA budget is back up to around $121 million for R&D projects. The area around Dulce, New Mexico starts to experience another intense wave of animal mutilations. NICAP begins its downward financial slide. George Bush becomes director for the CIA. Documents indicate that ultrasonics research lasted 20-years. In April 1976, NSC directive 4A authorized covert psychological activities to be conducted against American citizens. May 1976 was the 200th anniversary of the founding of the Illuminati.

1977 -- In 1977, the United States sends the Soviet Union a super-super-magnet, which they then use for weather modification. President Carter gets elected and says that he'll make every piece of information about UFOs available to the public. Carter is shown a disk and changes his mind.

In 1977, the intelligence branch of the Royal Air Force decides to no longer publish statistical reports about UFOs. The Freedom of Information Act was passed in 1977. In May 1977, Soviet KGB agents in regard to UFOs, approach Jack Acuff, CIA representative in NICAP. In September 1977, a Red Flag pilot strays over Dreamland and is reassigned within 48 hours to another base. Also in September, USAF Colonel Senn sends a letter to NASA General Crow, expressing the hope that UFO investigation will stop.

1978 -- In 1978, a wave of sightings in England begins that lasts until 1983, with some 3,000 sightings documented. In 1978, an NSA employee provides CIA NICAP representative Jack Acuff with classified UFO related documents. The movie "Close Encounters" is released to the public; as a new effort at acclimation toward pseudo-friendly aliens. In 1978, the United States sends new F-16 aircraft to NATO allies on Soviet ships. A former CIA employee verifies drawings of alien hands made at autopsies. Leonard Stringfield publishes "Situation Red." The magazine "Harrisburg" predicts an incident at Three Mile Island nuclear plant for March 28th, 1979.

On March 18, 1978, William Herman is abducted and told by the aliens of the existence of a "Network" of civilizations. They also confirm the loss of ships in the 1940's because of radar units. On June 19th, 1978, President Carter issues an executive order creating the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA); an act viewed by most to be unconstitutional.

In September 1978, scientist Paul Bennewitz discovers the activities of alien craft at Manzano Weapons Storage area outside of Albuquerque, New Mexico. Bennewitz submits a report called Project Beta to the government and is put under observation. He was allegedly subjected to three bouts with electroshock treatment starting in 1979, and then was observed by both the government and the aliens with whom he had been communicating through his computer equipment.

Also in 1978, FEMA conducts its first Rex exercise, "Rex-78."

1979 -- In 1979, a conference on animal mutilations was organized by Senators Smith and Domenici, and was attended by Scientist Henry Montieth, who had just completed ten years of research on the subject. The conclusion of the conference was that there was something of substance in animal mutilation cases that could not be explained.

1979 was the year that a disgruntled scientist at the Dulce Genetics Facility fled with videos, pictures and notes, vowing to expose the atrocities found there.

Presidential candidate Ronald Reagan visits NORAD in Cheyenne Mountain in 1979. CIA agent John Acuff of NICAP is replaced by retired agent Hall.

In 1979, a retired OSS agent claims during an interview that he was asked to kill General Patton. On January 18th, 1979, a debate on UFOs took place in the House of Lords in England. On March 28th, 1979, just as predicted, the Three Mile Island event took place. In October 1979, an altercation takes place between government scientists and military personnel and the resident aliens. Sixty-six people were killed.

1980 -- In 1980, after his election, Ronald Reagan changes the "Air Defense" in NORAD, to "Aerospace Defense." William Moore published "The Roswell Incident." The MUFON journal publishes an article on Project Redlight. The Federal Emergency Management Agency conducts Rex-80 exercises, in which they relocate Cuban refugees as part of a population relocation test.

In January 1980, Peter Gersten secures two documents from the NSA under the Freedom of Information Act. Gersten was able to find out on April 27th, 1982 that some 238 NSA documents were located in a search that the government made.

In May 1980, psychologist and researcher Leo Sprinkle regresses Myrna Hanson, who relates information about underground bases with vats. Also in May 1980 an event similar in many respects to the Doraty case of 1973 occurred. A mother and her young son were driving on a rural highway near Cimarron, New Mexico. They observed two or more crafts. A calf was being abducted. Both observers were abducted and taken on separate craft to what was an underground installation. The woman saw the dead animal she had observed being mutilated in the field. It has been alleged that she also observed a vat containing unidentified cattle body parts floating in a liquid, and another vat containing the body of a male human. The woman was subjected to an examination and it has been further alleged that small metallic objects were implanted into her body as well as into her son's body. More than one source has informed that CAT scans have confirmed the presence of these implants.

In August 1980, disks intrude again into the Manzano Weapons Storage Area in New Mexico. On August 8th, a disk was discovered next to a building by a guard. The building contained HQ CR44 (nuclear materials). On August 9th, a security officer checks down Coyote Canyon Road and discovers a disk.

By November 1980, the NSA was still monitoring researcher Paul Bennewitz. In December 1980, the Cash - Landrum case occurred where both women received severe radiation poisoning during an encounter with a U.S. disk that is escorted away in full view of the two women by 23 military helicopters.

1981 -- In 1981, George Bush (former head of the CIA) becomes Vice-President and Ronald Reagan becomes President. The NASA R&D budget is $109 million.

John Hinckley, Jr. shot Ronald Reagan in an assassination attempt to put George Bush in office. Hinckley's father, John Hinckley Sr. and George Bush Sr. were good friends and business partners in the oil industry. Under mind control as used today, Hinckley Jr. shot, but failed at his assassination attempt, to kill President Reagan. Today he is allowed to visit his family without observation. The shooting took place on March 30th 1981. John Jr. has an older brother named Scott Hinckley, who made dinner plans with his wife and Neil Bush (Bush Sr. Son) on March 31st, 1981. The dinner plans were cancelled in efforts to conceal the assassination plot.

In 1981, the University of Florida begins work on thought-operated computers. The Stealth 117A aircraft was first test flown. In January 1980, discovery of the Bentwaters/Woodbridge case featuring underground activities.

On January 13, 1981, Colonel Charles J. Halt, writes a memo at RAF Bentwaters on the alien encounter in Rendlesham Forest.

1982 -- In 1982, Peter Gersten of CAUS files a petition with the Supreme Court relative to NSA involvement in UFO related activities.

Researcher Linda Howe (A Strange Harvest) was allegedly contacted by MJ-12 with ideas for making a documentary release of information, but later changed their minds. In 1982 the planetary population exceeds 4.8 billion people. On March 10th, 1982, the House of Lords held its second debate on UFOs, still coming to no definitive conclusion. The Federal Emergency Management Agency conducts the Rex-82 exercise, which tested the national ability to mobilize quickly for wartime military production. The industry failed miserably.

1983 -- In 1983, a Nevada researcher discovers a metal rod in the center of a geomagnetic vortex in Blue Diamond, Nevada. The British government starts to release UFO files for the first time.

In 1983, the Stealth 117A fighter becomes operational on a covert basis. In 1983, the Colorado Advanced Technology Institute was created as a basic structure for future space oriented developments to take place starting in 1988 - 90. The memo of Colonel Charles Hait of Bentwaters is released in the United States. An internal Pentagon document dated December 1st, 1983 describes in detail the military directions for pulling out the troops in case of some unspecified emergency. The document lists exceptions to the Posse Comitatus Act, the federal law that prohibits the military from operating in the United States. The document gives as its authority for such actions "The inherent legal right of the United States Government to ensure the preservation of public order... by force if necessary." This was a claim that Supreme Court had dismissed when President Truman tried to use it to justify taking over steel mills in the early 1950's. There is evidence that new Army divisions, like those at Fort Lewis in Washington, will have a dual foreign and domestic role. Another planned division will be located at Fort Ord, California.

FEMA has standby legislation in a bill innocuously titled the "Defense Resources Act." The bill would suspend the Bill of Rights, abolish free enterprise, eliminate privately owned property, and generally clamp the American people in a totalitarian vise. Section 202 of the bill, for example, allows the President to instantly confiscate any real estate or personal property "That shall be deemed necessary for national defense purposes." Section 501 authorizes the takeover of any industry the White House authorizes. Section 1213 outlaws all strikes. The standby legislation also includes "Censorship of Communications," which allows the President, whenever he "Shall deem that the public safety demand it," to censor "Communications by mail, cable, radio, television, or other means of transmission." The "COG" (Continuity of Government) also exists. It is a secretive shadow government that is in place and ready to run the country.

Since 1980, this unprecedented apparatus has been installed to thrust the United States into a military takeover with or without the president's co-operation, and all in the name of preserving democracy from some un-named threat. Guess what the threat might be? It will be a planned alien threat sometime after 2012 but before 2023. Hundreds of disks will hover worldwide for global societies to witness. Humans will operate some of these disks.

May 1st, 1983, the movie "V" is presented to the public, portraying reptilian aliens who feed on human flesh, store humans for food, etc. Active resistance groups are also plugged in the movie/series.

1984 -- NASA budget is $192 million. Fawcett and Greenwood publish the book "Clear Intent." The Soviets conduct a national poll on UFO experiences, to which there are 30,000 replies. The Federal Emergency Management Agency conducts the Res-84 exercises. These exercises was involved with practice in detaining and handling large numbers of people. Large numbers of people might presumably have to be dealt with after a controversial government action of Martial Law.

On April 26, 1984, General Bond is killed flying inside Area 51 during a classified aerial test. In December, the U.S. Space Foundation held its first Annual National Symposium in Colorado.

1985 -- In 1985, McDonnell Douglas receives brand new technology from out of "Thin-air." John Herrington becomes Secretary of Energy. The Soviets reveal major encounter data to the public. Author Ralph Noyes UK publishes "A Secret Property," which was about the British Government and UFOs. NASA Budget has grown to $248 million for research and development. Lawrence Livermore Labs begins to manufacture artificial blood, some of which is destined for Dulce Genetics Facility in New Mexico. Cattle mutilations begin to drop off in the Midwest.

In October 1985, Aries Properties acquires 21,000 acres running next to Colorado Springs, site of a future space technology center.

In November 1985, NBC broadcasts a program about "Black unmarked helicopters, secret projects, and bad money." On December 4th, 1985, president Reagan voices thoughts about alien forces from space at Fallston High School in Maryland, where he spoke about his first summit with General Secretary Gorbachev in Geneva. According to a White House transcript, Reagan remarked that during his 5-hour private discussions with Gorbachev, he told [Gorbachev] to think, "How easy his task and mine might be in these meetings that we held if suddenly there was a threat to this world from some other species from another planet outside in the universe. We'd forget all the little local differences that we have between our countries ..."

1986 -- In 1986, "Sky Crash" by Jenny Randles and "UFO Crash at Aztec" by Steinman and Stevens, are published. The Brazilian Air Force, according to government documents released by the FOIA, chases UFOs. Project Snowbird goes into another phase to develop craft with conventional technology to show to the public. Crime rate rises 5.2 percent.

On July 26, 1986, Dr Robert I. Sarbacher dies.

1987 -- In 1987, the Star Wars budget is $4.2 billion. The Department of Defense now funds 75 percent of all Federal Research and Development.

A Los Angeles policeman is killed after discovering a major CIA distribution point for heroin and cocaine at the top of the Staffers Concourse Hotel in Los Angeles. Funds created by the agency are funneled to covert projects. Other distribution points exist at Riverton, Wyoming and on the Laguna Indian Reservation in Arizona. Delta Security Forces provide protection.

In 1987, the "Dulce Papers" are first released. Data on five entrances to Dulce Lab is leaked, and the government takes care of them by destroying buildings and building new ones in odd locations for no perceivable reason. In February 1987, there are 102 operable nuclear facilities in the United States. On February 15, 1987, the San Jose 'Mercury' reports on the Pentagon "Black budget" program.

Gorbachev himself confirmed the conversation in Geneva during an important speech on February 17th, 1987, in the Grand Kremlin Palace in Moscow, to the Central Committee of the USSR's Communist Party instead of presenting at a High School as President Reagan did December 4th, 1985 in Maryland. Buried on page 7A of the 'Soviet Life Supplement, was the following statement:

"At our meeting in Geneva, the U.S. President said that if the earth faced an invasion by extraterrestrials, the United States and the Soviet Union would join forces to repel such an invasion. I shall not dispute the hypothesis, though I think it's early yet to worry about such an intrusion..."

NOTE: Notice that Gorbachev doesn't say this is an incredible proposition, he just says that it's too early to worry about it. If Gorbachev elevated the theme from a high school to the Kremlin [palace], it's apparent that an extra-terrestrial invasion was of utmost importance.

On April 27th, 1987, genetically altered bacteria are publicly released. The bacteria were produced to interfere with "Frost damage to citrus crops."

In September 1987, 16-cycle waves are broadcast from transmitters and repeaters for a period of four months before the election of George Bush. The ELF (extremely low frequency) waves cause entrainment of millions of Americans to occur, possibly to influence the election. The main transmitter was located in Nevada. On September 4th, 1987, a group called "Justice for Military Personnel (JMP)" sends a letter to the President, detailing crimes that the military has been ordered to commit against private citizens in regard to the alien problem.

On September 21st, 1987, Reagan again voices his thoughts about aliens threatening the earth in an address to the United Nations. Instead of a domestic speech, a full session of the General Assembly of the United Nations was delivered. Towards the end of his speech to the Forty-second Session on September 21, 1987, the President stated:

"In our obsession with antagonisms of the moment, we often forget how much unites all the members of humanity. Perhaps we need some outside, universal threat to make us recognize this common bond. I occasionally think, how quickly our differences worldwide would vanish if we were facing an alien threat from outside this world. And yet, I ask is not an alien force ALREADY among us?"

NOTE: President Reagan then tries to retreat from the last bold statement by posing a second question:

"What could be more alien to the universal aspirations of our peoples than war, and the threat of war?"

NOTE: Unlike the improvised remarks at Fallston High School, we must assume that the President's speech to the General Assembly was written very carefully and likewise, it merits close examination.

On October 11th, the Las Vegas Review Journal reports a story on Area 51/ Dreamland in Nevada. On the 17th, large numbers of B- 52's were seen taking off from Hickem AFB, Hawaii. On the 20th, William Moore visits Albuquerque, New Mexico.

On November 21st, the Parkenson Institute begins asking the public for human fetuses to study. Requests are made to groups of hospitals. The fetuses were incorporated and secretly used for Alien Agenda and alien experimentation (Cloning). On the 27th, groups of U.S. Army rangers attempt and apparently bungle an attempt to enter a joint alien facility in New Mexico. In December, the CIA begins to contact everyone who was ever in its employ, and whomever had anything to do with the alien problem. A woman draws a picture of a black-mirrored spherical craft she says belongs to the National Security Agency. On the 14th of December, John Lear offers to host the MUFON Convention in Las Vegas in July 1989.

1988 -- George Bush finally becomes President. A joint alien base off the Florida coast is re-activated, giving rise to the sightings at Gulf Breeze.

On March 25th, John Lear releases a statement to the public on the status of affairs with the alien situation. John Lear became interested in the subject of UFOs 13-months prior to the date given above, after talking with a friend in the United States Air Force by the name of Greg Wilson. Wilson had witnessed a UFO landing at Bentwaters AFB, near London, England, during which three small Gray aliens walked up to the Wing Commander. Since then Lear has tapped his contacts in intelligence, investigating the allegations that the executive and military-industrial branches of the United States Government knows about, and colludes with, alien forces. Lear no longer suggests the following scenario was a possibility, he emphatically states that "the aliens are here, and that many of them bode us ill. It started after World War II. We [the Allied forces] recovered some alien technology from Germany... not all that they had; some of it disappeared. It appears that some time in the late 30's, Germany recovered a saucer. What happened to it we don't know. But what we did get was some kind of ray gun..."

The following is a Public Statement released by John Lear on December 29th, 1987 and revised on March 25th, 1988. It was originally sent to some of Lear's personal friends and research associates who in turn put pressure on the Ace Pilot to release this information publicly, and he does stating:

"The government of the United States continues to rely on your personal and professional gullibility to suppress the information contained herein. Your cooperation over the past 40-years has exceeded our wildest expectations and we salute you. The sun does not revolve around the Earth. The United States Government has been in business with little gray extraterrestrials for about 20-years."

NOTE: Lear's first statement, "The sun does not revolve around the Earth," was the same statement that got Giordano Bruno burned at the stake in 1600 AD for proposal that was thought as witchcraft.

On April 27th, Leonard Stringfield speaks at a Milford, Ohio public library. In May 1988, Reagan again for a third time makes a speech in which he refers to an "Alien threat from outside this world." Newspapers report Reagan has been allegedly "Warned" by astrologers that there will be a space invasion by 1993. It was discovered that EBE's (Grays) are sensitive to any material having a left-hand atomic spin. On May 5th, Leonard Stringfield releases an article in Batavia, Illinois about aliens.

In June 1988, Senator Cranston is shown several disks at Norton AFB. The publication "NASA Techbriefs" shows a photo of an EBE with no caption or explanation. Word comes from New Mexico to researchers that Los Alamos has developed an antimatter weapon, which allegedly will be used as a last resort if "The Grays cannot be pried away from the planet." The number of Grays on Earth is estimated at 20 million by 1988. In December, Steven White (President of Bechtel Investments) dies. Bechtel has been heavily involved in underground construction.

1989 -- Starting in 1989, billions of dollars are being spent modernizing NORAD. Data on Project Excaliber is released. The project is involved in developing a warhead that will penetrate 1000 meters of earth and then detonate, which is useful for destroying civilian underground bases.

1989 is the year that Zbigniew Brzezinski predicted that the United States Constitution would be re-written. In January 1989, William Cooper and John Lear issue an indictment to the president regarding the alien problem. No reply was ever received.

In 1989 Plans for the 9/11 attacks of 2001 begins within the U.S. Military.

1990's -- Abductions, animal mutilations, cloning, kidnapping, assassinations, the expansion of more underground bases (both alien and military), and continued plans for the 9/11 attack continued.

2001 – On September 11th, 2001, passengers on all four hijacked planes are flown to Dulce Air Force Base. Once on the ground they are instructed to call loved ones and say their good-byes. They are then escorted down to "Level-6" AKA "Nightmare Hall," a concentration camp full of Type-1 and Type-2 humans along with normal humans. Any human confined to this section, never sees the light of day and normally end up, deceased. Not one commercial airline, crashed on September 11th, 2001. Only two unmanned planes that were controlled from Dulce and targeted the Twin Towers, crashed. These two unmanned airplanes were Boeing 767 Tankers, issued by Dov Zakheim. Both the Pentagon Flight 77 incident and the Shanksville's Flight 93 incident where not plane crashes, but instead missile attacks ordered by the U.S. Defense department as a strategy to create a perpetual war in the Middle East.

Fallen Whistle Blowers

Of all the interviews regarding the Alien Agenda, Thomas Edwin Castello, gave the best interview because he had the highest clearance opposed to other ex-military personnel. Every ex-military person interviewed for this book has been assassinated. Death is an oath that all military personnel have to sign before working in underground bases with the various aliens. Here, I honor the brave few ex-employees who stepped forward and tried desperately to warn us all:

PHIL SCHNEIDER -- Phil was hired by the Secret Government as an explosives and excavation engineer for secret underground bases. Phil was lowered down into area where seven-foot Gray was sitting a few feet from him. Scared, Phil shot the alien and more appeared. One used a beam that cut open Phil's stomach and chest, and cut off three of his fingers. A firefight between humans and alien forces, within the Dulce, New Mexico base complex erupted, and even though Phil's life was saved, 66 men perished in the attack known as the "Dulce Wars" of October 1978.

Phil Schneider quit his job after regaining his health and began exposing the U.S. Government during a series of lectures. He exposed the alien infiltration of over 120 bases (such as the Dulce base in New Mexico, the Groom Lake Base, Area 51, in Nevada and one beneath the new Denver International Airport (to be used as a transfer center to underground concentration camps in times of chaos) and in addition he revealed a conspiracy to fit rail boxcars with literally millions of shackles. Phil Schneider's murder was setup to look like a suicide. Even though there was evidence of foul play having been strangled to death by piano wire, the "Official" conclusion was "Suicide." You can type in "Phil Schneider" on YouTube, to see his lecture.

STACY BORLAND -- Borland was a researcher who inspired John Grace (AKA Val Valerian) on his path, which led to the establishment of the Leading Edge Research Group who had also been working with employees of Reynolds Electric Corporation. He exposed the fact (over the Billy Goodman Radio Talk Show) that several of their co-workers were being held captive in an underground base below the Mercury Test site in Nevada (This was after stumbling across a conspiracy involving an alien (reptilian) takeover of U.S. underground installations).

This was also confirmed by a former Wackenhut employee, Michael Riconosciuto who implied that the entire underground system (linking Nellis AFB on the outskirts of Las Vegas with Edwards AFB in California) was no longer under human control and that many who had learned too much either turned up missing or dead just like the five test site employees whose chopper was shot down as they were trying to leave the base with an aircraft packed with evidence on antigravity, genetic and underground base atrocities. Borland was attempting to expose this conspiracy and help the "Mercury workers" in their desperate struggle. Shortly afterwards, Stacy and her brother were murdered in a "Gangland style" slaying in Las Vegas.

DANNY CASSOLARO -- Cassolaro was in the process of writing a book entitled, "The Octopus," a multi-leveled conspiracy of corporate-military control, much of the technocracy for which was being developed at Area 51. The Wackenhut Security Agency, owned and controlled by retired CIA and NSA fascists, is used as a parameter security force to augment the internal Delta Force security for several alien-infiltrated underground bases.

Wackenhut and other tentacles of The Octopus were to be heavily implicated in the Cassolaro expose, in large part due to former Wackenhut employee and source for inside dirt on the "Inslaw" scandal, Michael Riconosciuto. This gentleman was convicted of a felony and sent to a federal prison on what he claimed were falsified drug charges. Cassolaro was found murdered in his home, and his research papers and manuscript for his book were nowhere to be found.

JIM KEITH -- Keith was an outspoken exposé of the multi-leveled conspiracy involving underground bases, black helicopters, New World Order plans, illegal industrial-military treaties with ETS, aerospace, antigravity secrets preserved by deadly force, kidnapping and genetic engineering experiments which take place "In the black." (The alien-corporate monopolies operate under industrial security clearance levels so deep that even congressional regulators cannot access and oversee them).

It is a matter of aerospace, petrochemical, and banking monopolies placing those whom they wish into the executive, senatorial, and judicial branches of government. . . considering themselves to be above the law while imposing the fullness of the letter of the law upon those whom they perceive to be competition to their military-industrial fraternity. Jim Keith entered a hospital after suffering minor cuts from tripping. He never emerged alive. Many find the events surrounding this death to be highly suspicious, and suspect that foul play was involved.

J.R. -- This 'Martyr' is different from others in that his true identity is unknown, except for the initials "J.R." as given in a letter to Paul Shockley in which he describes other nameless martyrs connected with an underground facility near Salt Lake City, Utah. J.R. was not the first to describe this underground base. For example, Irvarene Davis of West Valley City, Utah (an abductee herself), was told by her son-in-law (who worked in the police department), that he was familiar with a case where a murderer insisted that he had been instructed by "Underground" beings to kill a certain person.

Another son-in-law by the name of Peter, along with her son, Robert, worked as security guards at the crossroads Plaza in downtown Salt Lake City, just one block south of the Mormon Temple. Peter and Robert had learned that when Crossroads Cinemas was being excavated, an ancient tunnel was uncovered, and a worker went in to investigate, but never returned. Other Salt Lakers have confirmed this account. Todd Jumper of Eaglenet learned of yet another incident where another worker entered the tunnel (behind the right-hand theater in the Crossroads Cinemas) and while exploring the labyrinthine dungeons below, was "Attacked" by a lizard or "Serpent man."

He barely escaped with his life, and once the story went public, the "Feds" appeared and reportedly sealed the entryway to this real life dungeon and dragon's realm. Peter and Robert claim to have penetrated the underground levels to the 3rd sub-level beneath Crossroads, but turned back, fearful to continue when they came to a door behind which they noticed a strange green Luminescence. In another penetration, Robert and an unnamed friend entered the city's strange system through a manhole, adjacent to the Mall, and made their way down to the 3rd sub-level.

Following a tunnel, they came to a door that opened into a 300 ft. long room where they saw men in suits carrying Uzi machine guns. They retraced their steps and made their way down to the 5th sub-level where they emerged into a large cavern in which they saw human-sized (3-toed) footprints in the dust. This was a seemingly bottomless shaft with a tunnel large enough to drive a semi through, strung with lights and leading off in a southerly direction. J.R. revealed that one man had reported on a cavern entrance that he knew of in southern Utah which led to this underground "World," where he found remains of a lost Troglodytic race and ancient artifacts including some sort of crystal-based weapons. This nameless man was beaten to death.

JR spoke of yet another nameless martyr who was a high-ranking official in the Mormon Church, and who worked in the Granite Mountain "Vault" in little Cottonwood Canyon's north slope. This man, as well as other vault workers, was aware of a tunnel that led from the depths of the vault into the heart of the mountain, yet they were forbidden access to this tunnel by the U.S. Government. Officials told the vault workers that it was their patriotic duty to keep silent regarding what lay beyond the tunnel. However, on certain occasions, he and other workers observed Gray aliens with big dark eyes peering from the darkness of the passage as if to observe their activities.

One day, the church official's curiosity got the best of him and he followed the restricted tunnel until he eventually emerged into a huge cavern filled with all kinds of activity. Construction projects were going on everywhere throughout the cavern system which honeycombed the mountains in a seemingly endless network. Amidst of all this, was the sound of the steady drone of machinery. He walked into one "Building" and saw humans and Gray aliens working at benches on electronic (mind control, etc.) equipment. Two military guards apprehended him and took him back outside, and with a death threat, warned him not to talk about what he had seen.

However, J.R. stated that something may have happened to this informant and this prompted him to expose the story to Paul Shockley and others. J.R. had also learned that just as with the Dulce base (to the SE) and the Groom Lake Base (to the SW) thousands of men, women and children have been abducted and taken into the underground labs of Utah to be used to satisfy the perverted sexual addictions of the 33+ Masonic members. Some of these people were to become the victims of alien experimentation, or worse. There is a massive cavern system (as described by Betty Andreasson, after having been taken there by the Gray alien, "Guazgaa") that lies beneath Utah's Great Basin, with underground branches reaching into all surrounding states.

An underground sea lake, large enough to be moved by tidal forces, feeds several underground rivers that run below Nevada and California and eventually emerge into the ocean's depths through the continental slope (Kokoweef River, for instance). A large number of human colonists, descended from ancient surface dwellers, once lived in relative security in their underground communities. That is, until the Dracos, Reptiloids, and Grays (moving northward from South and Central America) invaded from the South.

Freemasons, Jesuits and Nazis took control of the underground colonies, acting in collusion with the reptilians. These groups were originally based in reanimated "Atlantean" strongholds below the east coast underneath New York's Church of St. John the Divine; Boston's First Church of Roxbury; and the Masonic "House of the Temple" in Washington D.C.

RON RUMMELL -- Ron Rummell stated, "Sometimes people who write controversial books die before the book is released.

In early August 1993, Ron Rummell (also known as Creston) was found dead in a Portland, Oregon Park. He had been shot through the mouth and was supposedly holding a gun in his hand. The police labeled it a suicide and cremated the body the next day without performing an autopsy or notifying relatives. He published 'Alien Digest' and was close friends with the publishers "Revelations of Awareness."

On June 2nd, 1995, Fox TV discussed Rummell's death because he had been writing about the alleged suicides and/or accidental deaths of over 30 British scientists who had been working on top-secret projects in the British defense industry. These projects included mind control, star wars, and the implantation of devices in the brain without the recipient being aware of this. In some of these suicides, the victims were found with their hands and feet bound. While the U.S. press has otherwise refused to cover this story, the British press has had broad coverage.

THOMAS E CASTELLO -- Castello was a security guard in the underground mega base beneath Dulce, New Mexico. He and other employees of the organization had learned of the existence of vast underground concentration camps and cryogenic facilities in the deeper levels where thousands upon thousands of "Abductees" including alien, were being held. These abductees were being tortured, used for genetic experiments and/or being used as a source for the "Liquid protein vats" which feed various aliens and reptoids. After several of the human and alien members of the resistance had been killed or disappeared in the "Dulce Wars of 78", Castello decided to defect.

When Castello arrived home, secret service was waiting for him, with agents who informed him that his wife and son had been abducted and would not be returned unless Castello turned over the artifacts that he removed from the base. Castello escaped, never seeing his family again, being a fugitive for several years, until the last report from his co-researcher, Jason Bishop, reported he was killed in Costa Rica. Here's Castello's amazing interview.

The Interview of Thomas Edwin Castello

The following is a list of questions that were directed to former Dulce Base Security officer Thomas Edwin Castello, by Jason Bishop (his co-researcher) approximately a year before his death in Costa Rica. They are followed by his responses. The notes and all of the questions in this section are written or asked by Jason Bishop:

QUESTION (Q) -- When exactly was the (upper human-occupied level of the) Archuleta installation constructed?

ANSWER (A) -- I heard Dulce was started in 1937-38 by the Army engineers, enlarged over the years, most recent work was completed 1965-66 to connect tunnels to the Page, Arizona Base site of one of the older underground facilities. The four corners base is called, Perica. Most of the Native Americans living in that area are aware of that base, and could tell us about the underground life forms that frequently are spotted near those communities, Bigfoot, etc.

Note: The references to the Dulce base here deal mainly with the upper levels, not the extreme lower levels, which include vast natural caverns and, some, believe, very ancient tunnel systems as well. This would include the tunnels illuminated by phosphorus pentoxide, which the alien Grays avoid, and the origin of which is unknown. Sources have informed me that some of the underground NORAD facilities of Colorado were constructed within already-existing cavern systems, suggesting that Ray Palmer and Richard Shaver were correct when as early as the mid-1940's they wrote about the government's search for ancient underground cave and tunnel systems to be converted for their own use.

Q. -- By what means was the (upper) installations constructed? Are you familiar with the alleged developments made by the Rand Corporation of a highly-efficient bore or mole machine capable of melting rock using nuclear powered wolfram-graphite tipped drill-cones?

A. -- According to several senior maintenance workers, part of it was blasted by nuclear devices in the sixties. There are sections, like the shuttle tunnels, that were formed by an advanced tunneling machine that leaves the tunnel walls smooth. The finished walls in those tubes resemble polished black glass.

Q. -- By whom was the Dulce installation originally constructed?

A. -- Nature started the caverns. The Draco (reptilian humanoids) used the caverns and tunnels for centuries. Later, through RAND Corporation plans, it was enlarged repeatedly. The original caverns included ice caves and sulfur springs that the aliens found perfect for their needs. The Dulce caverns rival Carlsbad Caverns in size.

Note: Carlsbad Caverns and especially the adjacent Lecheguilla caves are officially among the largest and deepest in the world, with several leads that remain to be explored by professional speleonauts.

Q. -- What exactly are the cattle (and human) organs such as blood, anal tissue, eyes, reproductive organs, tongues, etc. used for example the organs obtained via cattle and human mutilations?

A. -- Read the so-called Dulce Papers for more information.

Q. -- Are the various electromagnetically controlled air or spacecraft that have been seen leaving from and arriving at Mt. Archuleta manned by humans, the alien entities, or both?

A. -- Archuleta Mesa is a minor area. The craft leave and are stored in five areas. One is S.E. of DULCE, one near Durango, Colorado. One at Taos, New Mexico, and the main fleet is stored at Los Alamos (under ground).

Note: I believe Thomas Castello is referring to the joint-operational fleet. From combined sources however it appears as if Dulce is absolutely surrounded on all sides by alien bases, and Archuleta peak (although apparently the central Nexus of the entire underground network) is nevertheless just one part of an overall complex that some claim is nearly the size of Manhattan.

One source has indicated that there are chambers a few hundred feet below the very town of Dulce itself that are part of level one of the facility. This close proximity may explain why it has usually been described as the Dulce Base. Apparently even with his high-security clearance, Thomas Castello was only familiar with one part of the overall mega-complex, which underlies the area. Whatever amount of activity is taking place there; different sources seem to indicate that the town of Dulce nevertheless lies over a major crossroads, convergence or intersection area of alien activity even though the core of alien activity has been extended to Los Alamos.

Los Alamos and the mountainous regions east and southeast of it in and around the Santa Fe National Forest seem to be the major nest of Reptilian/Gray forces in North America, although there is also a large number of dens scattered throughout the underground networks between Dulce and Area 51.

Dulce seems to be a major "Through point" for external and subterranean reptilian activity, a central infiltration zone for surface operatives, as well as an operational base for abduction-implantation-mutilation agendas and also a major convergence for sub-shuttle terminals, UFO ports, and so on.

Q. -- Others have suggested that some of the entities below Dulce are not of extraterrestrial origin, and that they are actually descended from saurian or reptiloid beings such as the Velociraptors or Stenonychosaurus Equallus a serpentine race or races similar to that hinted at in the third chapter of the book of Genesis?

A. -- Yes, some reptoids are native to this planet. The ruling caste of aliens are reptilian. The beige or white beings are called, "The Draco." Other reptilian beings are green, and some are brown. They were an ancient race on Earth, living underground. It may have been one of the Draconian beings that tempted Eve in the Garden of Eden. Reptoids rightly consider themselves "Native Terrans." Perhaps they are the ones we call the Fallen Angels. Maybe not, either way, we are considered the squatters on Earth.

Q. -- Some have suggested that the so-called underground E.T. bases and tunnels may, for a large part, be literally thousands of years old, constructions of an antediluvian race which attained to a considerable level of scientific complexity, and who were destroyed by a Divinely-initiated cataclysm which took place after they attempted to merge their science with occult/supernatural forces.

For instance some have suggested that the Bermuda Triangle phenomena may be the result of an out-of-control Atlantean experiment that led to a space-time disaster which produced "Electromagnetic fallout" in the Triangle area and elsewhere after they had accidentally loosed powerful forces and energies into the world that they knew very little about. Do your observations tend to confirm or refute such a possibility?

A. -- I'm not sure about the Divine part, but these 'aliens' consider themselves "Native Terrans."

A. -- Where do the little gray Aliens fit in?

Q. -- They work for, and are controlled by the Draco. There are other gray skinned beings that are not in league with the Draco.

Q. -- Did you ever talk to any of the aliens at the Base?

A. -- Since I was the Senior Security Technician at that base, I had to communicate with them on a daily basis. If there were any problems that involved security or video cameras, I was the one they called. It was the reptilian "Working caste" that usually did the physical labor in the lower levels at Dulce.

Decisions involving that caste were usually made by the white, Draco. When human workers caused problems for the working caste, the reptoids went to the white Draconian boss, and the Draco called me. At times, it felt like it was a never-ending problem. Several human workers resented the "No nonsense" or "Get back to work" attitude the working caste lives by.

When needed, intervention became a vital tool. The biggest problems were human workers who foolishly wandered around near the off limit areas of the alien section. I guess its human nature to be curious and to wonder what is past the barriers. Too often someone found a way to bypass the barriers and nosed around. The cameras near the entrance usually stopped them before they got themselves in serious trouble. A few times I had to formerly request the Return of a human worker.

Q. -- Are there other sites tied-in to the shuttle network other than those, which you mentioned, and if so, where are the entrances?

A. -- Where!?! Everywhere! They crisscross the world as an endless subterranean highway. Like a freeway, except this one is underground. The subterranean highway in America is like a freeway except it's underground. That highway depends on electric motors for trucks, cars and buses for the paved roads, and it is for limited travel.

There is another style of transit for freight and for passengers that is for rapid travel. That worldwide network is called the "Sub-Global System." It has checkpoints at each country entry. There are shuttle tubes that shoot the trains at incredible speeds using a mag-lev and vacuum method. They travel at a speed that excels the speed of sound. Part of your question involves the location of entrances to that base. The easiest way to answer is to say every state in the U.S.A. has them.

Frequently, the entrances are camouflaged as sand quarries, or mining operations. Other complex portals are found on military bases. New Mexico and Arizona have the largest amounts of entrances followed by California, Montana, Idaho, Colorado, Pennsylvania, Kansas, Arkansas and Missouri. Of all the states, Florida and North Dakota have the least amount of entrances. Wyoming has a road that opens directly into the subterranean freeway. That road is no longer in use, but could be reactivated if they decide to do so, with minimal cost. It's located near Brooks Lake.

Q. -- Are there any bases in the state of Utah?

Note: Thomas mentioned several areas surrounding Utah, Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada and Idaho, where there are connections, but little on Utah which according to some sources lies directly over one of the largest natural cavern systems in North America; one that is said to reach deep beneath the Western Rockies as well as beneath the Bonneville basin.

Have you heard anything about an alleged underground installation within the Wasatch Mountains?

A. -- Salt Lake, Lake Powell Area, Dark Canyon, Dougway Grounds, Modena, Vernal. All have exits there. Others too.

Note: There have been many rumors of ancient tunnel systems being intersected during the excavations of subbasement levels below major industrial and mall areas in downtown Salt Lake City. Various stories surrounding these tunnels include:

- Explorers who have entered the tunnels and never Returned
- Reports of lizard people down in the labyrinths
- Reports of grays working with humans on electronic equipment and massive building projects going on in huge caverns beneath the mountains to the east
- Reports of humans who are part of an Asian-based Agharti kingdom who maintain colonies within the tunnels and caverns below and who are in conflict with the reptilians, grays, and a group collaborating human fascists from a network of massive underground facilities beneath the Neu Shwabenland region of Antarctica;
- Reports of men in suits having been seen pacing back and forth through large underground chambers carrying Uzi machine guns
- Reports of seemingly bottomless shafts
- Large tunnels strung with lights that are big enough to drive a semi-truck through
- Sections of tunnel walls that looked solid yet which one could put their hands through;
- Rooms which emanate a strange greenish phosphorescent glow;
- Abductees who are taken below and encounter all types of aliens;
- Discs that have been seen emerging from the mountains to the east and attacking incoming UFOs over the valley;
- Dungeons & Dragons fanatics who have been down in the tunnels and tell wild stories of hundreds of miles of maze-like passages;

- Reports of connections to the tunnel systems via the sewer-drainage network especially underneath the downtown "Crossroads" area;
- Reports of alien activity similar to that which has been described in connection to Dulce New Mexico;
- Reports of a huge cavern network that reaches beyond the border of the state in all directions -- a huge network that connects the underground systems of Nevada with those of New Mexico.

Q. -- Does the Mt. Archuleta shuttle system connect with a shuttle system, which allegedly radiates from Mt. Shasta in northern California?

A. -- Yes. Mt. Shasta is a major site of alien elder race, Reptilian Race and Human meetings. Beginning Cleveland,

In essence, there is a war is between the Judeo-Christian based Constitutional Republic of America and the Luciferian-cult-based Socialist empire of Bavaria. Both the right and left wing movements are Machiavellian extremes created by the Bavarian Black Nobility in order to foment global chaos.

NOTE: There are several claims that the collaboration with the Reptilians began with the Luciferian cults of Bavaria, and was later brought into America via the infiltration of the Scottish Rite and the fascist core of the NSA and CIA. There may have nevertheless been a reptilian presence below North America within the caverns that dates back several centuries, however a massive reptilian infestation of these underground systems seems to have begun near the beginning of the 20th Century. Mt. Archuleta might be considered the Capital of the alien segment of the secret Bavarian Draconian New World Order government in America with the deep underground systems beneath the Denver International Airport being the Capital of the human segment of the secret government.

Truman received assurance to new high tech knowledge, and victory over all enemies on Earth. He then was introduced to Samaza and Khoach, aliens from Bootes and Tiphon [Draco], both reptilian kings or Ambassadors. Truman updated the "100 Treaty" that began in 1933 with Roosevelt, and requested magnetic advance, space knowledge and experiments. Khoach agreed, Samaza partially agreed. He exchanged hostages for genetic experiments and magnetic advance, but vetoed space and beam weaponry.

Q. -- Did you notice any involvement of high level Freemasons, Rosicrucian's or Jesuits within the underground installation and/or with the aliens?

NOTE: This question is based on the assumption made by some researchers that many of the Masonic lodges were, beginning about 1776, infiltrated by the Bavarian Illuminati. Much of the Masonic world is ultimately controlled by the Bavarian-lodge-backed 33+ degrees of Scottish Rite Masonry, a rite which according to early Masonic authority Rebold, can be traced back to the Jesuit college at Clermont in Paris; a Rite which advocates the destruction of national sovereignties in exchange for world government, the destruction of religious and especially Judeo-Christian movements, and the destruction of the family structure to be replaced by State control of children, etc., as opposed to the more traditional Protestant-Christianized York Rite of Masonry, which the Scottish Rite has attempted to subvert since its inception into Masonry.

A. - Yes I did, but that is a loaded question, and I won't comment further. I'm not a Mason, or member of any other secret fraternal group. There is one organization I am a member of [in the U.S.A.]. That group is commonly called the "Central Unit." It is a pleasure to tell you that I am a member of the "Sub-Galactic League" of Costa Rica.

Q. -- Is there any truth to the allegations that the CIA aliens have established bases on the moon, and also Mars?

A. -- I've HEARD that too, but I haven't seen proof with my own eyes. The aliens do allegedly have bases on several moons of Jupiter and Saturn. The CIA operates in other countries, but I've never heard they operate on other planets

Q. -- Have you heard any hints or rumors suggesting that there may be lower levels beneath the ULTRA-7 level of the Dulce base, and also, where these might lead to and what they might consist of?

A. -- Yes. Your guess is as good as mine... Sure, there was lots of talk but that doesn't mean it's there. However, I will tell you I saw elevators that were off limits unless you had an Umbra or higher security clearance. At that base, information is supplied to me at a need to know basis only. [My clearance was ULTRA-7]

Q. -- Some insist that the U.S./Secret government has developed it's own disk-craft based largely upon top secret antigravity experiments carried out by the Nazi-German scientists during World War II. Have you heard anything referring to this?

A. -- When I was working in Photo-security, heard a lot of talk, never saw the proof, but once in the Air Force I developed a roll of film that showed a craft like Adamski's with a swastika on the side.

Q. -- Tom, did you have access to the alien craft? Were you ever inside any of them?

A. -- Yes, I frequently saw them in the garages; there are quite a few of them. The main fleet is stored at Los Alamos. Yes, I entered several crafts. There were two things that stick in my mind, the odd spongy feeling of the floors, and the unusual pinkish purple color of the lighting.

The crew stated the floor becomes ridged in flight, and the purple tint of the lighting changes to bright blue white. The entire inside of the aircraft are scaled down in size, when compared to the average human. The halls were curved and narrow, but some how, when inside it appears bigger than it looks. Certain areas, the outermost sections, almost felt and looked alive. I was never taken up in one.

Q. -- Can you give me more information on the reptilian race, what do they do on the sixth level? The area called Nightmare Hall.

A. -- The worker caste does the daily chores, mopping the latex floors, cleaning the cages, bringing food to the hungry people and other species. It is their job to formulate the proper mixture for the type one and type two beings that the Draco Race has created. The working caste work at the labs as well as at the computer banks. Basically speaking, the reptilian races are active at all levels of the Dulce Base. There are several different races of aliens that work on the east section of level six.

That section is commonly called "The alien section." The Draco are the undisputed masters of the 5-6-7 levels. The humans are second in command of those levels. I had to argue with one large Draconian boss frequently.

ancient beings consider us a lower race. Karsh called me. Leader Castello, but it was used in a "Sarcastical way." However the worker caste is friendly enough, as long as you allow them to speak first.

They will answer if you address them. They are very cautious beings, and consider most humans to be hostile. They always seem surprised when they found many of the humans were open and trustworthy. There is no fraternizing with the aliens off hours. It is forbidden to speak to any alien race (in the halls or an elevator) without a clear business oriented reason. Humans can talk to humans, and aliens can speak to aliens, but that is as far as it goes. At the work site, however, it's different. There is free speech in the labs.

The camaraderie found in the labs also reaches the computer banks section. In those areas, everybody talks to anybody. However, everything changes the minute you cross the threshold of the hall. Instantly, all conversations become strictly formal. Hard as it was, several times I had to arrest someone, simply because they spoke to an alien. It's a strange place.

Q. -- Exactly what first made you aware that something was wrong at Dulce? Seems to me that a place as obviously horrible as this one wouldn't need an Einstein to know that this is a crime site. What took you so long? Are you the guy who blew the whistle?

A. -- There are several things you should know about. I took an oath, under the penalty of death, that no matter what I saw or heard I would never divulge the information. Also, I signed a waiver that states I would willingly give up my life if I was found guilty of treason.

At the Dulce Base treason is anything that mentions the details of daily operations at this facility, when outside the confinement of this base. When I first arrived, a "Need to know" policy was in effect. The story the honchos told us was that this is a Tri-Bio-Transfer Facility with Advanced Technology, doing advanced adventurous methodology for medical and mental gains.

Which is a fancy way of saying they do really risky things with human life just to see what would happen. If a medical cure happens, it will be heralded on the surface of the earth as a marvelous new cure, saying it was found after years of research at some well-known medical lab. The real story of the cure is never explained.

After all, the Dulce Base is a secret facility. These people are very good at what they do. They do not tell the truth about the unfortunate people that end up in Nightmare Hall. I worked with aliens. With that in mind, you should get the idea of the secrecy and the security at that place.

Yes, I know this was not the usual hospital type job site, but in the beginning I bought the whole package. I was reminded daily by intercom, in the elevators, that "This site does high risk advanced medical and drug testing to cure insanity, please, never speak to the inmates, it can destroy years of work." I'm sensible, when doctors say don't speak to them, who was I to destroy the delicate situation?

But one man some how caught my eye. He repeatedly stated that he was George S---- and that he had been kidnapped and he was sure someone was searching for him. I don't know why he sticks in my mind, I found I was remembering his face, thinking he sure didn't look or sound insane, but many inmates said that. The next weekend I convinced a friend of mine, a cop, to run a check on the guy, saying I had a run in with him and was curious.

I didn't mention the base at all. It was a sickening feeling when the computer confirmed that George S. was missing. What's worse, the cops thought he was just another guy that got tired of the daily grind and split.

That was the beginning. Am I the one that blew the whistle? No. The next Monday, I searched for George, but he was gone.

There were no records that explained what happened to him. It was another security officer that came to me saying he and some lab workers wanted an off duty meeting at one of the tunnels, off the record. Curiosity took over and I said okay. That night, about nine men showed up. They said they knew they were risking me turning them in but they wanted to show me some things they thought I should see. One by one they showed records that proved many inmates were missing people.

There were newspaper clippings, and even photos that they had somehow smuggled into the base. They hoped to smuggle them back out, without me turning them in to the honchos. I could see the fear in their faces as they spoke. One man stated he would rather lose his life by trying, than to lose his soul by not doing anything at all. It was that remark that turned the tide. I told them about George and the things I found out about him. After a few hours we pledged to attempt to expose the Dulce Base.

Q. -- The name Nightmare Hall is descriptive, but surely there was a regular name, what was it called in the manuals?

A. -- In the manuals it was called "The Vivarium." It describes Dulce Base as a secured facility for tending bio-forms of all types. In their report it is retold as a private subterranean bio-terminal park, with accommodations for animals, fish, fowl, reptile, and mankind. After seeing this park the name, Nightmare Hall is far more accurate than the manual. The accommodations for the inmates at Nightmare Hall fall short of the pretty picture the manual describes.

Q. -- You mentioned one reptilian leader, Khaarshfashst, do you know anything about him, like where is he from? Is he from Earth or some other planet?

A. -- His name means "Keeper of the laws." They receive their name after they reach the age of awareness. They do not recognize time as an important factor in being aware the way humans do. Upon their age of awareness they are cognitive of the station or position they are destined to fulfill. At that time they chose or allow someone to choose their name.

Their name will include the position they hold and several personally chosen letters. Each letter has a personal meaning, known only to the alien and the one that chose their name. Since Karsh's name means keeper of the laws his name includes kaash [memory or keep, base word for 'Akashic' record] and fashst [law, base word fast or bind]. Reptilians choose to be not only private but secretive of the location of their natural place. To them, birth, or emergence of life, is considered as one of the sacred rites of life.

They consider Earth, or Terra, their home planet, but several reptoids discuss several star maps. Most of those stars were within the Milky Way. Within those star maps lies the stars and planets of the Planets of the Allegiance.

Earth being one of the planets in their trade routes. If any human asked clear questions about the Allegiance, the aliens referred the questions to the Draco. The Draco in turn, referred the questions to their supervisor [me]. I did not have that information about the stars, because information was supplied on a need to know basis. I didn't need that information.

Q. -- Did any of the working caste join in the revolt? Could you give me some names?

A. -- A few of the reptilian janitorial crew let us know that they knew we were attempting to sabotage the work going on in the sixth and seventh levels. One of them, with the name Sshhaal, secretly formed a small group of reptoids with the same mind set as my group.

Sshhaal took upon himself the danger of informing me. He was as open as is possible in a unique situation. On the day I found out about it, I was inspecting a camera near an exit tunnel.

He approached, stooped down (the tall reptiloids average about 7-8 ft. in height according to most witnesses), seemingly scraping some non-existent dirt, and he quietly said, "A few of us agreed that you are singular in your interest in missing-human reports. If true, walk away. I'll reach you. If it's untrue, destroy my life now." My heart almost leaped out of my chest, but I silently walked toward one of the wide halls.

For the rest of my life I'll remember those words. It was the first time I knew reptilians could have individual thoughts and opinions. Basically, they formed a uniform front with a small variety of interests. Or at least, that was what we had thought. It was a couple days before I heard from him again. As he walked beside me in the sixth level's infamous hall, I heard him say "Enter the exit tunnel on the sixth level, north, after your shift."

The next few hours were long and filled with thoughts of betrayal, or worse, but I shouldn't have worried. I contacted one of the original nine [resistance] men, and let him know, just in case. Gordon wanted to go with me, but I convinced him to wait a few feet from the exit and pretend he was having trouble with his cart [electric, like a golf cart]. When I got there, there were three of them.

Sshhaal formerly introduced Fahsshaha and Huamsshaha [name base word is Sshaha or assist]. With that, I quickly grabbed Gordon from the hall and the five of us talked and walked in the dark tunnels about three hours. After that day, the joined resistance group got bigger and bolder. Ultimately, it ended when a military assault was initiated via the exit tunnels and they executed anybody on their list, human or reptilian.

We fought back, but none of the working caste had weapons, nor did the human lab workers. Only the security force and a few computer workers had flashguns. It was a massacre. Every one was screaming and running for cover. The halls and tunnels were filled as full as possible.

We believe it was the Delta Force [because of the uniforms and the method they used] that chose to hit at shift change, an effort that killed as many as named on their list. We, to this day, do not know who betrayed us. Gordon Ennery ran beside me as we ran into the third level exit tunnels, and he died when several bullets slammed into his back. I vaporized that assassin and kept running. And I'm still running. Gordon will be remembered.

Q. -- Tell me more about the flashgun. Is it difficult to operate, or is it like the weapon on Star Trek, that can stun or kill on different modes?

A. -- It is an advanced beam weapon that can operate on three different phases. Phase one, like Star Trek, can stun and maybe kill, if the person has a weak heart. On phase two, it can levitate anything no matter what it weighs. Phase three is the serious business mode. It can be used to paralyze anything that lives, animal, human, alien and plant.

On the higher position on the same mode, it can create a temporary death. I assure you, any doctor would certify that person is dead, but their life essence lingers in some strange limbo, some kind of terrible state of non-death. In one to five hours the person will revive, slowly; first the bodily functions will begin, and in a few minutes, consciousness followed with full awareness. In that mode the alien scientists re-program the human brain and plant false information.

When the person awakes, he recalls the false information as information he gained through life experience. There is no way for a person to learn the truth. The human mind remembers and believes completely the false data. If you attempt to inform them, they would laugh or get angry. They never believe the truth. Their mind always forgets the experience of re-programming.

You asked if the flashgun is difficult to operate. A two-year-old child could use it with one hand. It resembles a flashlight, with black glass conical inverted lens. On the side are three recessed knobs in three curved grooves. Each knob is sized differently. The closer the knob to the hand the less the strength. It's that simple. Each knob has three strengths also, with automatic stops at each position.

The strongest position will vaporize any thing that lives. That mode is so powerful it will leave no trace of what it vaporized.

Q. -- Is the weapon called a Flashgun or is there a different name in the manuals?

A. -- Everybody calls them Flashguns, or more commonly "The Flash" or "My Flash" when talking about it. In the manual it is first introduced as the ARMORLUX Weapon. After that, it is explained as the Flashgun.

Q. -- What type of security is found at the Dulce Base? What else is used against espionage or unauthorized entry?

A. -- I'll mention a few, but it would be nearly impossible to cover it all. The weapon, besides the Flash Gun, mostly used is a form of sonic. Built in with each light fixture [and most camcorders] is a device that could render a man unconscious in seconds with nothing more than a silent tone. At Dulce there also are still and VCR cameras, eye print, hand print stations, weight monitors, lasers, ELF and EM equipment, heat sensors and motion detectors and quite a few other methods.

There is no way you could get very far into the base. If you made it to the second level, you would be spotted within fifteen feet. More than likely, you would become an inmate and never see the light of the surface world again. If you were lucky, you would be re-programmed and become one of the countless spies for the Ruling Caste.

Q. -- According to certain reports, the Dulce Base is host to [other] aliens that live in level five. Is that true? Can the humans freely roam or meet one-to-one in the halls or is some type of protocol in effect?

A. -- There is protocol from the first time you enter the base and it must be followed every time you see an alien there. From the working caste, to the visiting aliens, to the Ruling Caste, there is a never-ending checklist of rules, law, and strict protocol. There is never a chance to roam on the fifth level. The alien housing area is off limits to any human. The Hub is surrounded by security, arsenal, military and CIA\FBI sections.

The area past the security is one of the most secured areas because it houses so many classified files. The entire east side of the fifth level is off limits except for security personnel holding ULTRA-7 [security clearance] or higher. The garage on the west side of the fifth level requires ULTRA-4 clearance.

Q. -- Is there proof available that could confirm the allegations of the underground base, or are we just supposed to believe you?

A. -- Many people have asked that one. No, I don't expect people to believe with blind faith, there is tangible proof that has been seen, felt or inspected by quite a few folks. I'm in no position to go on a lecture circuit to explain to every person on a one-to-one basis. I am trying to stay alive.

All I can do is state again, that Dulce is a secret facility. They work hard to make sure nobody can find the place. If everyone could easily find it, it wouldn't be a secret facility. I've explained the extreme security methods they use. There is other proof available.

There are five sets of copies in five different boxes in five different locations that hold complete proof of every thing I have tried to explain. Here is a list of contents of each box (delivered into the safe-keeping of five individuals known only to Thomas Castello and to the individual recipients):

(A) 27 sheets of 8 x 10 photographs of Aliens, creatures, cages and vats.

(B) One silent candid video tape, begins on the computer banks, shows the vats, multi-shots of Nightmare Hall, two shots of Grays, one shot of the Terminal showing sign saying, "To Los Alamos" and about thirty seconds of the Shuttle train arriving.

(C) 25 pages of diagrams, chemical formulas and schematics of alien equipment.

(D) A copy of the new treaty complete with signatures.

(E) 2 pages of original Alien documents signed by Ronald Reagan [as governor of California], each page includes Reagan's signature.

The original set mentioned above is sealed in one-piece oxygen free heavy plastic box. That set includes:

(A) 27 sheets of 8 x 10 with original negatives

(B) The videotape, and the original microfilm, from which the videotape was copied.

(C) The 25 original pages of diagrams [with notations], formulas, alien equipment schematics plus the schematics for the flashgun and my flashgun.

(D) The treaty with Reagan's signature plus seven other political signatures and four Alien signatures.

The working flashgun in that box is an extremely dangerous weapon. In the wrong hands, there is no limit on the danger it could inflict. That proof must be protected. But when placed in the hands of certain government agencies, it would not be treated as proof for an alien visitation. That government branch knows the truth and they publicly lie. Think about it like this, do you know, for certain proof that George Washington lived? Or do you believe what other people said about him?

There is no one alive that saw with their own eyes what is claimed about him. You judge all you know about him by what other people said. Columbus said there is a new land, and it was found. I am saying there are aliens in several underground bases in this country and terrible things happen in those places. If I die, before it is proven, search for proof (after all, the Dulce Base and the other bases aren't going anywhere. Unlike UFO's themselves they are not "Here today and gone tomorrow." If they are there, then there are bound to be some indications of the fact.

Demand that the government admit it. If enough people demand it, they will find a way to explain the base, or at least explain why they must keep it secret. There are many people that work at the Dulce Base that know me. I am challenging those co-workers to speak up, at least anonymously. Send a letter, or a telegram [or fax] to confirm what I have explained. In the name of the brave men, woman, children and aliens that died trying to let the public know what is going on at the Dulce Facility, expose that horrid place before thousands more innocent people are tortured and die unspeakable deaths.

Q. -- What about the elevators, do they drop from the surface to the seventh level in a couple of seconds? Do you know anything about them? Are they electrically lifted? Everywhere on the surface world there are elevators made by Otis Elevator Company. Does that company make the elevators at Dulce?

A. -- I failed to notice what brand was available in the elevators at the base. I could tell you that there is no elevator anywhere at Dulce that drops from the surface to the seventh level. The security blueprints show the levels are stepped down. Each level drops one floor only.

Not even the Hub has an express elevator. After the third level, not only would you change elevators, you are weighed and color coded, before you re-enter the car. All the elevators are magnetically controlled; even lights in elevators, as well as all lights on all levels are magnetically induced. The light bulbs are not the type bought on the surface, but a totally different type of light system. The illumination found there is a closer match to natural sunlight than any artificial light on the surface world.

The shape of the elevators is unique. If you have ever seen a Tupperware sugar bowl, you could see the shape copied in the elevator. Sort of like an open ended oval with another half oval on each side. The elevator shaft matches the shape perfectly. The magnetic controls are in the half oval shape. If you could stand in, or close to the half ovals, you would feel the slight pull of the power of those magnets.

The motion is smooth and silent; there is a nearly unnoticed surge when the motion starts or stops. There are no cables needed, because the lift is magnetic, not electric. Since there are no cables in the elevator cars there is no chance of them falling.

Q. -- I understand that certain groups of cleared individuals in the government are collaborating with alien groups. Is it known how many groups and of what type they are working with?

A. -- I don't know how many groups or what type they are working with.

Q. -- A mysterious security man calling himself agent "Yellow Fruit" says he worked at Groom Lake [Area 51]. The Security Officer states that he's been in contact with benevolent aliens, at the Groom Lake facility. Are you aware of such a group?

A. -- Yellow Fruit is one of the slang names for Yellow Jack [or Yellow Flag] that shows quarantine and caution in the labs. There are so many different slang names at Dulce labs that meant quarantine that the workers published a booklet to show the meanings. At Dulce, Yellow Fruit are the lab workers [so called from the yellow light outside the decontamination chambers]. Banana is the older worker; lemon is the new guys and so on.

Q. -- Is there an alien installation under Groom Lake or Papoose Lake at the Nevada Test Site, and are they conducting biological research at these sites?

A. -- Most of the stuff at the Groom facility deals with defense, but there is a large storage area in the tunnels that holds thousands of alien craft parts. From what I have heard, the medical tests at the Nevada Test Site are conducted by and for the Navy.

Q. -- According to my sources, the Aerospace companies have a secret underground installation in the Tehachapi Mountains, not far from Rosamond near Edwards AFB. Insiders refer to the Tahachapi Installment as the Ant Hill. They are experimenting with advanced technology such as antigravity disks. Some have seen basketball sized floating orbs patrol the facility; do you have any further information on this?

A. -- The California mountains [Tehachapi, Chocolate, Shasta, etc.] all have alien security methods and equipment. The basketball size orbs are used for unmanned patrol. They are silent, but when photographing living beings there is a humming sound. The glow that emits light is magnetic aura. This [light] is in the visible spectrum [3900 angstroms]. You can see the light, but the light does not reflect off any thing.

Q. -- Is there anything you can tell me about the moon - alien installations? Atmosphere? U.S. bases?

A. -- There is not much I can tell you there. I wasn't in the Lunar Program. I heard there was a lot of equipment sent to the moon between 1959-1964 under "Project Whiteout."

Q. -- How do the aliens use magnetism? Do they use it as an energy source? Is there more we need to know about magnetism?

A. -- The aliens use magnetic for everything! They use magnetic as the basic structure for their energy source. The more you learn about magnetic, the better. The Human Race calls them "Magnets," the Aliens call them "Lodestar." They have been harvesting lodestars [lodestones] for centuries. Not only that, they want all the magnetic power on Earth.

They intend to continue harvesting that power, now and in the future. As long as we were only using magnetic power as an oddity, there was no problem. But in recent times, the human race has begun using magnetic power and finding more ways to utilize that commodity. There was a treaty made. In the original treaty, the human race (or those who supposedly represented the human race, if you could call it that) didn't mind at all. We considered magnets as hardly more than useless.

As people searched for another source for power, we turned to magnetic. The aliens wanted a new treaty. What could we offer? They chose land; underground mining rights, animals and humans for new experiments. The general public never knew about the treaty. The governmental [Bavarian cultist] heads of the world chose another treaty in 1933. This time we got high-tech knowledge in exchange.

So now, the more we use magnetic, the more they claim humans, and the lands of the U.S.A. We were sold in exchange for magnets. If you doubt it, look around, there are token companies that really utilize magnetic power, but are depending on electric based or ceramic magnets, not lodestar [magnetic oxide of iron] based magnets.

Q. -- What do the aliens do with the cow blood and other parts from mutilated animals? Do they need these fluids for research or survival?

A. -- The aliens use the blood and body parts for formula to keep them alive [their food] and for use in the growing vats, and for the artificial wombs. Plasma and amniotic fluid are the two most vital ingredients for their lives. Also, the sap of some plants can keep them alive for months. Most of the plants are parasitic in nature, but red grapes and okra plants can also be added to the formula to keep them alive, if they have no regular formula.

Q. -- Female abductees report being inseminated by aliens. Are they trying to hybridize our species?

A. -- Yes, they are breeding slave-warriors for the upcoming war with the alien. The serpentine races are in orbit around Earth, Venus and Mars.

Q. -- Abductees have reported that the aliens can pass their bodies and that of the abductees through window glass. Is this a feat of magic achieved by advanced technology or is it a psychic power?

A. -- The aliens have mastered atomic matter. They can go through walls like we go through water. It is not magic, just physics. We can learn to do the same thing. It has to do with controlling atoms at will.

Q. -- Are you in communication with benevolent aliens or do you have contacts that are? If you are, can you tell us how we can communicate with their teams?

A. -- I am not at liberty to discuss communications with any friendly alien life forms. I can tell you there is a friendly factor active in Costa Rica; I am in direct communication with that factor. I am an active member of the Sub-Galactic League of Costa Rica. This organization, using a small satellite dish, a television set and ham radio equipment reached this factor. I might suggest that by using similar equipment and a low band frequency, you may reach the same factor.

Q. -- Do you stay in the U.S.A., or do you live abroad? Do you work now? I know you have been on the run for several years.

A. -- Yeah, quite a few years. I visit the U.S., but it's really dangerous when I do. I've lived in several countries. I spent a few years in Mexico, working as a mercenary soldier. It's rough work, frequently living in the bush, eating what ever I can find. I spent time in South America, fighting the drug cartel [it's not the citizens, it's the secret government, top officials and American alphabet boys -- CIA, FBI, etc.].

I settled in Costa Rica, bought a small house in Limon. Actually it is a shanty that some one abandoned. I paid the equivalency of $11 to one of the local constables for the right to call it mine. My name changes when I think some one is asking questions. I've worked in one of the underground bases near the Panama border. It's in the mountains, not very far from a passive but active volcano. It is not as fancy as Dulce, but the people are wonderful.

Q. -- What is the best city in Costa Rica for an American to visit and maybe move to live?

A. -- None of them are worth anything [by comparison], but I like Limon. There is a real culture shock when you get past the tourist sections. Inside the urban areas, it's not so bad, but away from the beaten path the picture changes. There are no improvements in the shanties, no sewers, plumbing, or paved roads. But if you stay in the cities, and you don't mind the big difference in the cultures, the countries have a lot to offer. Nice weather, great beaches and beautiful trees with fruit growing everywhere.

Q. -- Are there any other security level names [other than 'secret' - 'top secret' - 'ultra']?

A. -- There are many other security clearances; here are a few, UMBRA, STELLAR, G2-7Z, TRIAD, UMT [Universal Military Training] and UMS [Universal Military Service], ASTRAL and SUB-ASTRAL. UMBRA is higher than ULTRA

Q. -- Ever see a badge with "MAJI?"

A. -- No.

Q. -- Since you have lived in Spanish speaking countries, it's obvious that you are bilingual. What other languages do you speak?

A. -- Other than English, the only other languages I speak are Spanish and Eusshu, the common language [alien] spoken at Dulce. I speak Spanish fluently, and enough Eusshu to keep my self out of trouble. Shortly after I first transferred to Dulce, I took a crash course in Eusshu.

Any one that plans to spend more than one week working at that base, they are wise to learn the basics. Other wise, you are required to wait for an escort to get around. All the signs at that base are written in the universally recognized symbolic language. Eusshu is logical and easy to learn.

Q. -- What are the eating habits of the aliens? Are they carnivores?

A. -- That depends weather they are one of the Gray worker caste, one of the reptilian worker caste, or one of the higher developed Draconian Leaders. Also, the created beings, replicants, type two being, or one of the really strange [genetic] mixtures. I'll try to cover a little of each. The formula includes amniotic water, plasma and several other body parts [raw, usually bovine].

This nearly clear mixture with a texture of pureed peaches, and almost in that color. The Grays make the attempt not to eat around the humans, because the odor of it is very unpleasant to any human. They can spend days or even weeks between feedings. The working caste of the reptilians eat meat, insects and a large variety of plants including vegetables and fruit. They prefer their meat raw and very fresh, but have learned to enjoy some cooked meat like rare beefsteak.

NOTE: According to many abductees, the reptiloids are not above eating human flesh. It has been said that they prefer flesh that is young enough to be free of toxins, yet old enough to be imbued with a lifetime of accumulated emotional energy residue, which is resident within the human body. Some abductees claim that certain reptilian factions have such complex bio-technologies that they are able to remove a human's soul-energy-matrix and place it in a containment box, and use the controlled body for whatever purpose they choose.

Some abductees also insist that in some cases the reptiloids can create a cloned duplicate of a person in a short amount of time through time warping and replace the soul-energy-matrix of a person back into the new cloned body if their disappearance from society would otherwise create too many problems. This way they can ingest the emotional-residue-imbued original body without the abductees realizing [in most cases] that their soul-memory-matrix has been transferred to a cloned body, because they would have experienced a total soul-matrix energy transfer and a suppression of any memories relating to the transfer process.

The cloned bodies do not possess the integrated emotional residue that the vampirialistic reptiloids apparently crave and find intoxicating in a similar manner as a human on earth who is addicted to hard drugs.

Unlike the Grays, they eat frequently and usually carry or send for food on their breaks. The Ruling Caste is secretive about their foods. They have created several dietary myths that they carefully embellish when the chance arrives. One of their favorite legends involves one of their ancestors' ability to eat an entire flock of geese in one setting. They rarely eat in sight of any other species.

They carefully choose their food, and then carry their meal to their quarters. It was only when dignitaries arrive at the base did they join their meals. They enjoy the same foods we do, and they have been seen secretly munching on a freshly found snail. The human looking replicants eat some cooked vegetables. They rely on vitamins and liquid protein for sustenance. If they have to eat on the surface world, they can eat what ever they are served, but as soon as possible they regurgitate.

Their digestive systems frequently fail to process the food properly. The engineered beings have a special diet, created for their dietary needs. The mixture includes several organ foods blended with plasmatic fluids, amniotic liquids and parasitiplasm materials. These unique animals also enjoy occasional green plants, usually grasses or lettuce. The creatures that are designed to become warriors eat protein filled liquids.

Q. -- In the Dulce Papers, copper seems to be high on the importance list. In what methods is copper used?

A. -- One of the main uses of copper at Dulce is containment of the magnetic flow, magnets are used everywhere at that base. The infamous vats' interiors are lined with copper, and the exterior walls are clad with stainless steel. The mechanical arm that stirs the liquid is made of a copper alloy. Other uses include dietary needs in a few of the transbiotic beings.

There are several specially made cells or rooms built first with lead, then magnetic steel then clad in copper. It is in those cells on the Fourth Level that contain living aural essence. This essence is what you would call [a captured disembodied] soul or astral body.

NOTE: This may tie-in with the reports of certain remote-viewing astral spies who claim to have projected into underground facilities like Dulce New Mexico or Pine Gap Australia, only to have close encounters with these astral containment fields, or have been captured by the same and released after being interrogated via super-sensitive electronic equipment. In one case an Australian remote-viewer was probing the Pine Gap facility where he also saw three other astral spies.

The magnetic or astral body of one of these people had been captured by such a containment field, which really disturbed him. This man, Robert, also saw Grays and Reptiloids operating in the deeper levels of Pine Gap and also Nordic-type humans who were apparently captives and who did not seem to be very happy about being there.

Q. -- Growing multi-species beings, blood formulas and human parts in vats sounds like a bad plot to a science fiction movie. The doctors and scientists of the world claim you can't mix the species. The concepts mentioned in the Dulce Papers sounds far fetched. Could you provide information that the average surface world reader could understand about similar things?

A. -- The doctors and scientists on the surface world may say that, but underground, away from the prying eyes of ethics boards, they do grow trans-genus beings. There is a lot of written material available at libraries.

One of the best sources is an easy to read book published back in 1969, by Prentice-Hall International, with the title of "The Second Genesis, The Coming Control of Life," by Albert Rosenfelt.

In this book, they discuss animals that may be especially bred to supply genetically reliable organs for people and the use of fetal or embryonic material from which adult sized organs and tissues may be grown. Also he discusses the fact that embryonic tissue has no immunological activity, therefore it cannot provoke the defense mechanism in the recipient. It will join the body not as a foreign antigen, but as a natural protein.

He further discusses solitary generation, commonly called, "Virgin birth," but also known as parthenogenesis. With one virgin birth in 1.6 million births average on the surface of the world, in Dulce that rate is reversed. Occasionally, a normally born human infant is born in the hospital wards on the Seventh Level. Parthenogenesis is the method used to grow type two beings. The now common transsexual surgery on the surface world began at the Dulce Base.

Men became women on a whim in the Seventh Level labs, and with the Fourth Level technology, the brain washing [resulted in] the eager desire to become a woman and that poor man [whether a willing or unwilling participant] firmly believes he always wanted to be a woman. No one could convince him to believe the truth. All things are twisted at Dulce. A quote by Dr. Ralph W. Gerard (in The second Genesis) put in his now classic statement: "There can be no twisted thought without a twisted molecule." Most have originated at Dulce.

Q. -- How are the human workers stopped from telling everything about Dulce?

A. -- Implants, fear threats to harm the families, EM control, also reprogramming with ELF (Extremely Low Frequency) and drugs are the most common methods to encourage the workers not to divulge the location or daily routine.

NOTE: The Hollow Earth theory is one that was postulated by various well known individuals, including Marshall B. Gardner, Raymond Bernard, William Halley - discoverer of Halley's comet, Edgar Allen Poe, Edgar Rice Burroughs, John Cleves Symmes, John Uri Lloyd and others.

Basically the thesis involves what one might refer to as the Geoconcavitic sphere theory, or that as the earth was forming in its molton state the planetary spin created a hollow or concavity within the center similar to the hollow created by the centrifugal force of a horizontal washing machine following a spin cycle. The theory, which has been postulated in para-geological theories, in adventure novels, and in some cases even in alleged visits to the inner world, states that the shell of the earth averages between 800-1000 miles thick, with an interior surface consisting of oceans and land illuminated perpetually by a sphere of electromagnetic and/or nuclear energy suspended at the very center of the empty space.

There are reputedly funnel-like openings near the polar regions, perpetually concealed by mist created by the collision of cold air from the outside and hot air from the inside, which permits ingress and egress to and from this inner world.

The theory states that the inner surface has its own gravity, yet slightly less than the outer surface gravity. One side-theory is that between the inner and outer surface where gravity is nullified there exists a layer of weightless or low-weight caverns in an eternal state of chaos where minerals, liquids, gases and chemicals continually slam together from the earth's rotation, causing intense magmatic activity, a virtual inferno, or bottomless pit.

Some have theorized that based on the Apocryphal book of Esdras, chapter 13, which contains non-canonized Jewish legends that the 10 lost tribes of Israel disappeared beyond the river Sambatyon and to a place in the far north where humans never lived before called, "Arzareth." In the last days, a path would be made through the ice and waters of the north and the lost tribes would return. There are three tribes accounted for as of this writing, or rather two tribes and two half tribes: Judah, Benjamin, half of the Levite tribe, and apparently half of the tribe of Dan if we are to believe the Ethiopian Jews who claim to be descended from Dan.

The 13th tribe would be accounted for by the fact that the two Josephite tribes of Ephraim and Manassah are considered distinctive tribes in and of themselves. As for the giants, some believe that these have a direct connection to the 10-12 foot tall Anakim people mentioned in the Old Testament who were driven out of Palestine, following which the Torah gives no further details as to their fate, although there have been many reports of such giants being encountered in large cavern systems below Alaska, Oregon, California, Utah, Texas and Mexico, and also reports of ancient gravesites in the western U.S. and elsewhere where the remains of human giants have reportedly been discovered.

Q. -- A construction worker at "The Ant Hill" (the Northrup's Tehachapi Base) reports seeing 10-12 foot tall human looking beings in lab coats. Who are these guys, are they from the hollow earth?

A. They are probably inner earth drones [workers]. The deeper you get, the stranger the life forms. The tall men are from the subterranean levels, lower yet are the dwarfed deformed forms. I don't trust either of them. There are other forms, that both the tall men and the dwarfed men fear and loathe, they are similar to Bigfoot in appearance, but extremely violent and enjoy eating what ever they find while it is still alive. They are subhuman and demented, with an IQ around 15.

NOTE: According to another source, these lower Bigfoot type creatures having more of a resemblance to apes than to the more human-like faces and features of the much friendlier Sasquatch people who frequent the surface dwell in wild cavern systems some six or more miles deep, along with other very large and dangerous insectoid and quadruped or serpentine reptilian life forms reminiscent to something from out of a hadean nightmare.

This is according to a report I investigated some years ago of a group of speleonauts who reportedly broke into a vast underground labyrinth west and northwest of Cushman, Arkansas, where they encountered these types of creatures as well as friendly blue-skinned humans who claimed to be descended from a family that had survived an ancient global deluge by taking refuge within a large ship. These ancient people claimed that their ancestors had come to the Americas and discovered the cavern world, wherein they commenced to establish their hidden civilization.

The reptiloid [hominoid as opposed to quadruped or serpentine] life forms stay in caves or caverns that aren't very deep. They prefer the Desert Mountains. They use camouflage rather than fighting, but they do carry vril rods for protection (flashguns). They do have a symbol, not like the snake-with-wings that I keep seeing in the public (which is used mostly by the Grays and also as a medical symbol for the Delta Force). The Reptoids use a dragon with its tail in its mouth (a circle) with seven pointed stars in the middle.

Q. -- There have been reports of the Delta Force having black vans with no tires that hover over the ground. How much are we already inter-working with alien cultures?

A. -- I haven't seen the black vans you mentioned. We are totally submerged with alien cultures. Very little of the original human cultures have survived.

Q. -- How can we (the public) go after, or expose an alien culture which is covert and hidden?

A. -- Go for the best shot. That means go after the Reptoid. They stay near the surface, they choose to try to hide and avoid contact. They are soldiers, doing a job and usually there are two or three at each job site. They are manning a remote post. They are not to bother the humans unless they are endangering the post. Most of them are not hostile and won't kidnap you; they may blast you with a flashgun that may paralyze you (you won't remember the flash) for an hour or two and cause confusion and mild fear.

It could cause you to black out for a while. It is their way to escape and buy time to hide any visible equipment. If you know any areas with repeated reptilian sightings, then that is the place for you to look. They are fearsome to meet face-to-face, and their voices are harsh and whispery with heavy "Sss's," but most of them understand English and several other languages. Wear something with a reptile (not something violent, like St. George killing the Dragon) in sight. If you see one, keep your hands open, palm forward, arms down. That is the non-aggression approach. Don't raise your arms, unless told to.

Don't carry anything in your hands or arms. If he doesn't run, walk slowly towards him. Let him speak first. They consider humans repulsive and hostile and threatening. Don't try to offer him anything; don't touch him or anything of his. If he hisses at you, back up a couple feet, but don't look away. It simply means he finds you smelly. Don't try to overpower him; he is stronger than ten or twelve men. Usually, if he hasn't run so far, he is curious and wants to talk to you. Fight your fear and your thoughts of panic.

Q. -- How do we get closer to some kind of data to prove to others that there really is a danger from non-human beings?

A. -- Good question. I'm afraid we will find the proof the hard way, when we are invaded. Try to keep a small camera with you at all times. When you search for reptoids, keep it in your pocket.

Q. -- Is there a specific location where the public can set up their cameras and equipment to document an alien-government base, and/or their activities?

A. -- The problem is, most of the meetings are held in military bases or underground. The Groom Lake Facility does fly several alien craft that regularly fly over unpopulated land that go back and forth from several bases, Southern California has several notable areas. Twenty-Nine Palms, Lancaster or Chocolate Mountains are well know for such activities.

Q. -- Could you provide us with a copy of your badge or card you used at Dulce?

A. -- Badges or cards never leave the bases. All exits have bars or walls of metal to open; to go out requires using the card. When you use it for an exit slot, the card won't come out. Each time you leave the base, you are issued a new card, with all the usual data about you, plus your weight added, corrected daily. There are several mines in the Chocolate Mountains that open into a base highway, but be aware that they are patrolled regularly and there are cameras there.

Q. -- There are so many types of really far out alien seen in TV, movies, magazines and popular fiction, is there one type of a fictional unknown race, in your opinion, that fits the term "Alien?"

A. -- Yes! There are two, an alien that is totally indescribable, and another would be a pseudo-alien.

Q. -- What are the dimensions of the Dulce Facility?

A. -- There are 1,700 paved miles of roads under Dulce and Northern New Mexico. Towards Los Alamos is another 800 miles of tunnels. The base is still growing [due west].

Q. -- What is the top depth?

A. -- The First Level starts 200 feet from the surface. Each level has a ceiling of seven feet, except levels six and seven, the ceiling there is 45 and 60 feet. There are approximately 45 feet or more between each level. The average highway ceiling is twenty-five feet. The HUB at the base is 3,000 feet wide. Use a 7.5-minute scale map to try to comprehend the size of the place.

Q. -- Are there regular vehicle exits that can be observed from the ground?

A. -- Yes, but they are inside Los Alamos.

Q. -- Are their aerial exits that can be observed?

A. -- Twenty miles due north of Dulce is a large hanger, it is hidden by a facade of cliffs. Look for an isolated short road on the top of a mesa, with no road to or from the top.

Q. -- Are the ventilation shafts visible?

A. -- The ventilation shafts are hidden by bushes or vents inside caves. There are five on the top of the mesa, be aware there are cameras inside most of the vents.

Q. -- Is there external security, and could we recognize them in or around the town itself?

A. -- There is minimal security on the surface; most of the men and women are Air Force or highway crewmen. There used to be a Best Western motel that hosts or hires a lot of Base workers from Level One. I don't know if that motel is still operational. Most of the security force live in Santa Fe. Others live at White Pine (Los Alamos).

Q. -- Are there security sensors? What type? If so, what is their power source?

A. -- Yes there are many types of sensors, radar, infrared, heat sensors, microwave, EMGW, and satellite. Most of the sensors are powered by magnetic power. The only thing you may notice on the surface would be an occasional satellite dish.

Q. -- If you can, give us some information on the upcoming war with the aliens. When does it start? Do you recommend going underground?

A. -- The war has already begun. To start, they use weather control devices (H.A.A.R.P) that can cripple a city in hours. Storms, flood and drought. With those few things they can bring any country to their knees in a hurry. Yes, I do recommend going underground. Choose a location that has a higher elevation than the surrounding terrain. Pick out a cave or even an abandoned mining shaft or two; bury a cache of supplies (including food and water) near these locations.

Place the supplies in heavy plastic boxes that have tight lids (to prevent the destruction by earth burrowing rodents and insects). Then plan to live like a squatter when it becomes necessary. If you own land, create a system of tunnels and tell no one. Use your tunnels to secrete your supplies, and plan to live in those corridors when you must.

Q. -- What about the reptilian ships that are in orbit around the equator, are they cloaked?

Note: Presumably including the original two planetoids that arrived in geosynchronous orbits around earth at 400 and 600 miles up in 1953. This reportedly led to an NSA project, which successfully communicated with the Gray aliens and resulted in a contact-landing-treaty scenario involving president Eisenhower and other Executive-Military-Industrial officials at Muroc/Edwards/Holloman Air Force Bases in 1954.

A. -- They are not cloaked the way you may think. It's more like nobody is learning to see, even though it is in plain sight. Like the mailman becomes invisible because you are so used to seeing him you never noticed he is alive. One of the favorite methods of covert activities is to hide their operation in such an obvious way (or place) that no one would suspect it is covert.

NOTE: For instance, hiding entrances to underground bases beneath religious shrines, federal buildings, mining works, malls, libraries, lodges, hotels or basically areas that one would consider the least likely places to hide or accommodate an entrance to an underground facility. The underground New World Order 'FEMA' facilities throughout the United States apparently utilize this type of concealment with many of their bases.

Q. -- What are the Grays susceptible to?

A. -- The grays are photosensitive; any bright light hurts their eyes. They avoid sunlight, and travel at night. Camera flashes causes them to back up. It could be used as a weapon against them, but they recover quickly. It could buy enough time to escape. Use commands, or nonsensical words in the form of commands and they will back up. Their brain is more logical than ours and they do not create "Fun." They do not understand poetry either. What really confuses them is saying things in "Pig-Latin." We learned that in a hurry, and used it against them (Grays) in the Dulce Wars.

Q. -- Can Grays read your intentions if you came up behind one?

A. -- Yes. They read your intent, because they use your body's frequency. The human race broadcasts a frequency that they recognize as an electromagnetic impulse. Each person has a slightly different frequency, that difference is what we call "Personality." When a human thinks, they broadcast strong impulses, in the case of "Fear" the frequency is loud and easy to recognize (by the same right, a calm and composed mind-set should be far more difficult to recognize).

Q. -- Can we shield ourselves against their mental control?

A. -- We can shield ourselves against them, however 95% of the human race never try to control their thoughts, and controlling our own thoughts is the best weapon. The average person rarely thinks in a clear pattern. That allows the brain to think in a chaotic way. Control your thoughts, and you can stop the aliens attempting to abduct and control you. Controlling my own thoughts have kept me alive for years.

Q. -- Could you shed some light on the type of human the aliens are looking for when they abduct?

A. -- I can tell you that the most common are petite women in their early twenties or early thirties, dark haired boys between five to nine, small to medium size men in their mid-twenties to mid-forties. But, let me stress that there are all types of people being held against their will in the Dulce Base. There are tall heavy men and women, teenagers, elderly folks and very young girls in the cages AND the vats.

I only mention the most common age-size are the small young men and petite women. The boys are favored because at that age their bodies are rapidly growing, and their atomic material is adaptable in the transfer chamber. The young small women are frequently very fertile. The men are used for sperm. I have no idea why they prefer small to average size men.

Q. -- Did you ever see twins or triplets, etc.?

A. -- Since you mentioned it, no. It never crossed my mind to search for them. But then that doesn't mean they aren't there. There is no way I could have seen everybody at that huge complex.

Q. -- What is the prevalent human race at the Dulce Base? I am curious about both the human workers, and the inmates.

A. -- The human work force is made of people from every nation on the surface world. The one thing they share is that they all speak English. If you are asking if there are white, black, red, yellow and brown skin color, again I'll have to say that there is no prevalent race there. As for inmates, I could see ALL races there. From what I could see, it looked like there were more white people, but again, I saw a constant flow of different people, many I think, were only there for a few hours.

Q. -- Please explain the method they use to identify each inmate.

A. -- No one has a name. When first brought to this facility, they were issued one large number. Usually that code has a mixture of numbers and letters. They show the place, how, and by who, followed by the time, age, sex and finally the personal number (their S.S. number). For example it might look like this: NVLV-00A-00700-Poo:00:00-00-M-000-00-000

Q. -- With that huge facility, trash and garbage must be a real problem, how do they dispose it?

A. -- It was never a problem. Some of it is reformed or melted down then remade. Some of the wet garbage is eaten by bacterial forms, and what's left is vaporized in a vat like chamber. The residue of that action (it takes them months to get enough to measure) is used in a complex lye and used to fertilize crops.

Q. -- Where is your family? Not just your wife and son, but parents and siblings?

A. -- Cathy and Eric are still missing. My parents died in a car crash when I was in my teens. I have one brother; if he is alive I suspect he is inside an underground base somewhere. I haven't heard from him for several years.

Q. -- What is your birth date, and where were you born?

A. -- 23 April 1941, Glen Ellyn, IL. Actually in a farm at home, in the place now called Glen Ellyn, my birth Certificate list is at Wheaton, IL.

Q. -- You have been through so much, and yet keep fighting. What is your biggest fear?

A. -- That the general public will forget the trapped innocent people in the despicable place, and will ignore the hundreds of children, women and men added to that place (Dulce) everyday.

END Interview...

Inside the Mind of a Genius

Because of my life experience here on Earth and the unearthly travels that I have experienced since the age of two, I've studied the mind of geniuses worldwide and found that we have three things in common. One, we tend to quietly sit for hours uninterrupted, lost in our thoughts. The second thing most of us have in common is excitement of inventing new ideas without the motivation for money or recognition. The third thing we have in common is our communication with beings that don't hold the likeness of humans.

In 2010 while researching in Thailand, I visited a dentist convention. During the lunch break there was a 20 minute "Meet and greet" before lunch was served. I walked up to a mixed group of dentists, oral surgeons and orthodontists. I was happy to meet with them because they came from all over the world. I told the group I had invented a procedure that that would be most effective and I was willing to give my idea away for free. The group became intrigued. I explained to them that hereditary doesn't define the teeth of a patient but yet defines the tendons that give the shape of the patients teeth. So if the teeth are straightened, an oral surgeon can simply cut the tendons so that the teeth won't fight to be placed back in its original setting. Tendons are like rubber bands, cut them and they wont grow back.

We discussed the matter for the whole 20 minutes. One Japanese orthodontist said, "This is a very good idea that hasn't been invented. Why would you tell us and not patent it for yourself?" I replied, "Because I'm not a dentist and my motivation is not money or fame, I simply want people not to be burdened with retainers anymore." From the looks on their faces, no one seemed to understand my logic because it didn't involve money. I have invented many things in my life and I have passed my ideas on to people who were an expert in that particular field. At times, I get lost in my thoughts for 16-28 hours without feeling tired or restless until my idea is formulated.

In college I failed several statistical exams, not because I got the problems wrong, but because I got the problems right without showing the extensive work. On weekends, I would spend hours formulating new ways to quickly complete an answer without using pages of equations to come up with the complete answer. After proving to my professor that my method was adequate, he agreed only to take five points off for not showing the complete work. The truth is, I couldn't show the full work if I was paid to do so, because I didn't know how. After getting lost in my thoughts, I would lay down in a deep trans, and a giant being would teach me easy ways to calculate the statistical problems. My mathematical trans were best around 5:00 am. I would wake up and quickly write down what I learned under a deep trans state.

Throughout my life, I realized that these trans can be used on anything conceivable by the human brain, including art, mathematics, architect, music, writing, and even the likeness of IEUE and the heavens, and even hell. I even had a demon teach me pressure points on my body that would allow me to climax uncontrollably while having sex. I tested these pressure points and every one of them worked just as I was taught while in trans with the demon.

At least twice a week I am visited by some kind of being including demons, Angels, or extraterrestrial

(depending on my mind frame). If my mind is clean honest and pure, I'm privileged with Angels. I know them when I see them. There are usually two of them; they are both giants with pure white skin that appears to be transparent. They never speak with their lips, only through telepathy. The demons are most common and they come in all shapes and sizes, they love to snatch my soul from my body and slam it into walls. Sometimes they show me things that are forbidden and I can't discuss these events in this book.

The exterritorial come and go only at night. It's done the same way whenever I see them. No matter what room I sleep in, they awaken me with a dimensional trap door that opens from my ceiling. I'm always afraid of them because my body can't move, but I don't remember what they do to me. Whenever I'm placed back in my bed I can see them rising up to the dimensional doorway in my ceiling. There are always three of them and they always look at me before closing the trap door. Weather demon, Angel, or Alien, I'm always awakened by a high pitch ringing sound and a physical feeling of loud vibration hovering above my body and face. Once the noise and vibration stops, I'm in full trans I can leave my body. Sometimes I leave my body and just stare at myself in amazement, in a lifeless sleep laying in my bed. I can even smell my scent.

Since 1985 I tried to prove to myself that these trans were nothing more than dreams that I was having. In 2003 while at my office, I finally was able to prove to myself that these trans states were in fact real. I stayed awake for over 30 hours before falling into a deep trans at work in my office. Once I was free of my body I decided to call my secretaries cell phone from this other worldly realm.

After using a frequency that I had knowledge of, I was able to make her cell phone ring. Once I heard her phone ring, I appeared in the lobby. I saw her look at her phone and then she accidentally drop the phone. In the spirit world I was screaming, "Answer it," but she couldn't hear me. She picked up the phone and walked up right next to me. She looked into my office and saw that I was asleep and that my phone was not off the receiver. She called my name, and said, "How are you calling me from your office phone?" she walked into my office, and I came out of trans. I asked her, "Why didn't you answer the phone, I was calling you from the spirit world?" She looked confused and I explained what I had done and told her everything that happened while she was in the lobby.

This experience was extraordinary. Sometimes when I would wake up, there would be a giant being standing over me. If I play like I'm asleep, he leaves me alone, but if he knows I'm awake, he attacks me. After the cell phone incident at my office, I invited a significant other to my place for dinner. I cooked a heavy meal so that she would become very sleepy. I invited her to my bedroom where I was doing homework on my bed. We chatted for a bit and she began to fall into a deep sleep. Suddenly she began to make a weird noise that other have described me making before I was awakened. I knew for a fact that she could see the tall being standing next to me. I couldn't see him because I was fully awake in third dimension. I gently grabbed her arm and pulled it. She woke up screaming and swinging at me! She yelled, "Why wouldn't you wake me up!?" I asked, "Did you see him? Could you describe him?" She had the most shocked look I've ever seen on a woman. She said it was a very tall dark shadowy figure standing over me. I asked if he attacked her and she said, "No" and that it just kept staring down at me.

She quickly gathered her things vowing never to come to my house ever again. I am still good friends with her, but she is only willing to visit me anywhere but my home. I was pleased with the outcome because it was a planned experiment and it worked. I realized that I am nothing special. Everyone in this world has the same opportunities to explore the universes, as their mind seems fit. Here are a few examples of my theory:

Albert Einstein – Einstein spent hours in a chair consumed by his thoughts. He'd fall into these altar states of conscious while his thoughts (as we know it) were consumed on light, energy, time and matter. In 1905 his papers were labeled the "Annus Mirabilis Papers" ((from 'Annus Mirabilis,' Latin for 'Year of wonders'). This was the turning point in the career of Albert Einstein.

Socrates – Socrates was in combat in many battles including Potidaea, Amphipolis, and Delium. While at the Siege of Potidaea, Socrates fell into a deep daydream, fully consumed in thought. He claimed that he would communicate with a demon from time to time.

William Blake – Blake claimed that his paintings came from repeated angelic visitations.

Leonardo da Vinci – da Vinci would lay on his bed with a candle lit at the foot of his bed. He would then stare at the ceiling for hours until he fell into a deep trans state.

Giacomo Puccini – Puccini stated that his opera, "Madame Butterfly" came from a divine source.

Srinivasa Ramanujan – Ramanujan stated that math was revealed to him through the Hindu goddess Namagiri. He stated that while in a trans, a large hand appeared and wrote equations on a giant red wall and that he memorized the equations and woke up, wrote them down and confirmed his findings.

Nikola Tesla – Tesla admitted on many occasions that he was communicating with other beings from distant planets. He began conducting R&D in his brain before building various devices. Tesla found out that energy such as electricity is free globally. We just needed towers around the globe for this free energy to bounce off of, like a wireless receiver. What he invented was exactly why the pyramids were invented. They are power plants that allowed space vehicles to collect energy while in flight.

Aleister Crowley – Even the founder of the Church of Satan, Alesister Crowley, admitted to falling into a trans state where he met with, Aiwass/Lam, a alien looking figure, who he believed came from the planet, Sirius. Crowley credits Aiwass for dictating a work called, "Liber AL." Liber AL led to the founding of the Church of Satanism. It is suggested that Crowley is the father of Barbara Bush.

When Einstein died, they found that his brain had more glial cells relative to neurons in all areas studied. It is my guest that if we could study all the brains on this list of extraordinary men, we would find that all of them had more glial cells in there brain at the time of death.

I believe this could be the case for any human on Earth who is disciplined enough to become consumed in his or her thoughts. There are far too many distractions in life such as television and sport events for people now days to become consumed with creating newness. Sometimes I wonder if it's better that way, because as you can see from my genius examples, every great thought introduced, is ultimately "Weaponized" instead of being used for a "Better-good."

Though these geniuses get lost in thought, and trans into dimensional travel at times, I found that dimensional travel was possible, physically, after my science teacher showed my class a videotape of the atom bomb exploding. It appeared that the military opened up a massive "Gateway" to a dimension of galaxies that are nowhere near our galaxy. Within the explosion you can see a star constellation unknown to man at the time of the experimental blast. Within the blast it appears to be the "Virgo Cluster" as seen below. After the blast, UFOs were spotted in the area.

Global governments are planning an alien attack. After studying the Illuminati Card Game for 15 years, I know for a fact that the cards are running out and that this real-life game is almost over. The card with flying saucers is called, "Church of Middle America." The first sentence in this card reads:

"They'll never get it, even when the saucers are flying overhead."

After reading this Book (Book-9), you should now, "Get it." "It," is defined by an 80 plus year alliance that our global governments have had with a group of aliens and native Reptoids, and reptilians. "It," also defines who is leading this alien attack. The masses will always believe what they see. In this Book, my hope is that you learn how to see behind the projection of illusion, where our governments are standing together conspiring in darkness.

The Planned Hoaxed Alien Invasion

The military-industrial complex mapped out the various false-flag operations it would conduct into the future as far back as the 1970's. Their purpose was to keep the world in an almost-perpetual state of war, for reasons varying from maintaining high sales of military equipment to American domination of the world.

In an article written by L C Vincent, in the "Uncensored magazine (June 1st, 2012), Dr. Werner von Braun is described as been a top ranking SS officer who was also the head of the Nazi rocket program during WWII. Von Braun was brought to America after the war because our government considered his knowledge and expertise too vital to fall into the hands of our enemies.

Dr. von Braun and his colleagues brought with them a wealth of information gleaned from other top Nazi scientists like his boss, SS General Hans Kammler. Von Braun worked on anti gravity propulsion vehicles reputedly under development during the last days of The Third Reich. Over the years of his career, von Braun also had access to NASA's secret programs. These secret programs exemplified the true goals of America's space program and how the military-industrial complex was manipulating it according to a secret, hidden agenda during the latter years of his life.

Atomic Bomb

Virgo Cluster

Dr. Carol Rosin first met Dr. Werner von Braun in February of 1974. It was at this time, shortly before his death in 1977, that von Braun confided to Dr. Rosin the details of this secret space agenda.

Inviting her into his office, Von Braun stunned Dr. Rosin by describing this plan, as well as describing in detail exactly where it was all leading: planetary control under an oppressive One World Government.

According to Dr. Rosin, von Braun then gave her one supreme assignment to foil this plan to of "Weaponizing" space. Failure to do so would lead to calamity for the human race as a secretive transnational power, already in existence, would move to permanently take control of this planet thru a hoaxed alien invasion from outer space.

According to von Braun, space-based weapons, later known as the "Star Wars" program, were to be publicly promoted as our space "Shield" against the evil Russians. Then they would be promoted as our defense against terrorists from Third World countries ('Rogue' nations or 'Nations of concern'). Then their necessity would be justified as protection against asteroids and meteors, and the "Last card," the final justification according to von Braun, would be their installation in orbit against an extraterrestrial threat from outer space.

Von Braun told Dr. Rosin that she would begin to notice a certain "Spin" on the news, which would illustrate the need to build space-based weaponry because our enemies "Might" have these weapons, so our intelligence community would proceed on the assumption that they "Do" have these weapons. This is exactly how the Star Wars program transpired.

According to von Braun, all of these publicly announced threats were lies. Von Braun cited the reality of nuclear suitcase bombs being available even then, as well as chemical, viral, bacterial and biological terror weapons against which these space based weapons would be useless.

More importantly, von Braun told Dr. Rosin in 1974 that we already had the technology to build anti gravity vehicles and entire transportation systems, which did not require so-called "Fossil fuels" but instead used "Beams" of energy, thereby eliminating all pollution from these sources permanently (as Nikola Tesla discovered in the late 1800's). Dr. von Braun had seen anti gravity vehicles with his own eyes in Germany before the end of the war, as well as their continued development at other secret technology sites afterwards.

Von Braun further told Dr. Rosin that we had the ability to transform our "War" based military/industrial complex into a space and energy industry for the benefit of all of humanity, and that we had the capability of building entirely nonpolluting transportation technologies using this same limitless energy, while ending the arms race without dislocating the jobs associated with it. Mankind could transition to a new industrial paradigm and usher in an era of peace, plenty and prosperity for everyone on Earth.

Of course, what is equally interesting is what Dr. von Braun left unsaid. If space based weapons technologies are not really being developed to protect the U.S. and its allies against rogue nations and their weapons; if, indeed, such weapons are useless against suit case nuclear bombs, as well as chemical, biological and viral weapons, then exactly why are they being developed? The answer is, these weapons (such as HAARP) can be used to destroy the global population and could be blamed on an alien attack.

After global terrorism, events will unfold that would utilize the now-revealed Alien Reproduction Vehicles (ARVs, or reversed-engineered UFOs made by humans by studying actual ET craft) to hoax an attack on Earth."

The goal of this hoaxed space alien invasion was simple: control thru fear, to drive governments of all nations to submit and unite under one central authority, a One World Government, and as Dr. Greer said:

"...to justify eventually spending trillions on space weapons... thus uniting the world in fear, in militarism and war."

Globally, we have been purposely conditioned over the years to view aliens as threatening and predatory. Such films as "The Predator," "Independence Day," "Alien," "War of the Worlds," "Cowboys Vs. Aliens," "Oblivion" and others produced by Hollywood studios still to come in coming years leading up to the apocalypse. Dr. Greer stated: "...this mental conditioning to fear ET has been subtly reinforced for decades, in preparation for future deceptions."

Dr. Carol Rosin revealed this information before the national press in Washington, D.C. where she also said that she was willing to make the exact same statement under oath to Congress. Of course, the official mainstream media never saw fit to make mention of this startling pronouncement by Dr. Rosin.

The possibility of an "off planet" (which is really an inner planet) space fleet already in existence was given even more credence when a young Scottish hacker by the name of Gary McKinnon recently broke into the Pentagon's computers and reputedly came up the names of some of our "Off-world" U.S. space fleet (identified under the abbreviation: USSS), two specific space ships, (the USSS LeMay and the USSS Hillenkoetter), the names of the various crews, their ranks, and transfer assignments between various "Off Earth" space ships.

This computer security breach enraged the Pentagon and The U.S. Government is currently seeking to extradite McKinnon from the U.K. to face charges of computer hacking with a punishment of life in prison, but we know that if Mr. McKinnon is caught, he will be spending his last days in terror "Nightmare Hall" beneath Dulce.

Wernher von Braun, his assistant Dr. Carol Rosin, and Dr. Steven Greer of The Disclosure Project have done their best to warn the world at large of this coming deception based on secret energy technology.

Dr. Greer concludes: "Space based weapons are already in place – part of a secret parallel space program that has been operating since the 1960s. ARVs are built and ready to go. Space holographic deception technologies are in place, tested and ready to fire. And the Big Media is a pawn..."

I will discuss the holographic deception technology of "Project Blue Beam," in Book-11.

Secrets of The Tunguska Event of 1908

In May of 2013, The History Channel aired a documentary on a mysterious explosion that took place on June 30, 1908 at 7:17 am. This was the biggest explosion documented to date in the history of mankind. The force of this explosion was two thousand times greater than the Hiroshima bomb. No one was killed as this explosion took place in the Siberian forest. History books call this incident the Tunguska catastrophe. To date, international scientists from various disciplines are still arguing about the causes of this disastrous explosion. In this documentary, scientist and archeologist analyze recent and controversial findings of some leading scientists. They try and identify the reasons why Tunguska has become such an interesting phenomenon and examine the impact produced by this legendary event, both on the culture and on the economy of the Tunguska region of Siberia.

As I sat and watched, I knew what caused this event and after two hours of repetitive theories, the show ended without explaining how this explosion occurred. The final best guess was that a meteor exploded in mid air just before its impact, but that's not what happened, so I became concerned and rewound the show on my DVR and watched it again. It was obvious this show was on for a reason, so I listened very carefully to every word in this documentary until I found what I was looking for. At one point the narrator said, "What if this happened again?" By mid show he said it again, "What if a phenomenon such as the Tunguska Event happened again." I don't recall how many times it was said, but it was said enough for the viewer to question, "What if that happened here in town or my neighborhood?" I realized that the motivation of this documentary wasn't to deliver an answer to what really happened, the morning of June 30, 1908, it was preparing us subconsciously for what could happen in the future. So what caused this massive explosion? To this day there is not a single pebble to prove that a meteor impacted the earth, or exploded over Tunguska. The question is not what caused this explosion, the real question is, "WHO" caused it?

On April 21, 1908, about eight weeks before the great Tunguska Event took place, Nikola Tesla wrote a letter to the N.Y. Times, which stated: "When I spoke of future warfare I meant that it should be conducted by direct application of electrical waves without the use of aerial engines or other implements of destruction...This is not a dream. Even now wireless power plants could be constructed by which any region of the globe might be rendered uninhabitable without subjecting the population of other parts to serious danger or inconvenience."

I had the pleasure of studying Tesla's work in Belgrade, Serbia, throughout Frankfurt, Germany and Los Angeles, California, over a course of three years, so let me first explain the Ionosphere, as Tesla was a master at manipulating the ionosphere, creating free energy, but also an invisible weapon of mass destruction.

The ionosphere is the ionic charged part of the atmosphere. It's important because we use it to transmit radio waves. It's an invisible shield that protects the Earth from solar radiation. We found out about the ionosphere in the 19th century and it was once called the Kennely-Heaviside Layer, named after two scientist who explored its existence.

This thin air of the high stratosphere and beyond, is where atoms and molecules are ripped apart and electrified by incoming cosmic and solar radiation, creating an Ionosphere.

This is Tesla's transmitter to the right. He said it could produce 100 million volts of pressure and currents up to 1,000 amperes, with experimental power levels of billion or tens of billions of watts. If that amount of power were released in "An incomparably small interval of time," the energy would be equal to the explosion of millions of tons of TNT, that would deliver a multi-megaton explosion. Such a transmitter would be capable of projecting the force of a nuclear warhead by radio. Any location in the world could be vaporized at the speed of light," and that's what caused the "Big Bang" in Tunguska. Of course Tesla tested it on a smaller scale to prove it worked, but kept its outcome very quiet so that no one would know that it was him who created this massive explosion.

In 1898, Tesla had designed an oscillator that generated half a million volts. Convinced he could develop enough power, he stated that he could "Split the earth like an apple." He was afraid of destroying New York City, so he moved his experiments to Knob Hill near Colorado Springs.

By a remote control, Tesla created an explosion in Tunguska, that was generated from the United States. It was an invisible explosion of energy that left not a single trace of evidence.

After its success, Tesla announced that he would create a space shield around the United States to protect the U.S. from enemy missiles, rockets, and planes. He also claimed that he would zap enemy missiles, rockets, and planes from the sky with a "Death beam."

On September 20, 1940, Tesla announced that he was ready to divulge the secret of his "Teleforce" and "Death Ray," and his invisible "Chinese Wall of Defense" to protect the United States. The Teleforce is what he used for The Tunguska Event.

The explosion knocked over an estimated 80 million trees covering 2,150 square kilometers (830 square miles). It is estimated that the shock wave from the blast would have measured 5.0 on the Richter scale. An explosion of this magnitude is capable of destroying a large metropolitan area.

This weapon exists today and is controlled by the U.S. government under the H.A.A.R.P. program. So what happens if they fake an alien attack and then once the space crafts are gone, these explosions began to take place all over the world in populated areas? There would be no evidence to prove who initiated these explosions and that's why I'm writing about it now so that you will become familiar with the truth before it's seen on the news as a sort of phenomenon that took place somewhere in the world, or blamed on non-hostile aliens.

The history channel didn't air a non-answering, two-hour documentary on the Tunguska Event for nothing. Like film, the Illuminati will always warn us before implementing destruction.
